

Hospital Fund Climbs To Near $600,000 At Noon

Day's Reports Boost Total
Subscribed In Jameson
Memorial Campaign
To $596,219

ANOTHER REPORT NEXT WEDNESDAY (BULLETIN)

Additional subscriptions totaling $69,225 boosted the amount raised to date by advance gifts and industrial workers in the Jameson Memorial hospital campaign to $596,219 at the last scheduled report meeting at noon today.

This put these groups $24,219 over their minimum quota of $572,000. The overall minimum campaign goal is $750,000.

At the request of workers, many of whom still have uncompleted contracts, Co-chairmen Robert H. Cunningham and H. L. Gordon of advance gifts and Industrial Chairman James M. Smith, Jr., have called another report meeting for noon on Wednesday, January 7, in The Castleton hotel.

Hardest Part Of Job Ahead
Congratulating the volunteers in these divisions on their "magnificent accomplishment," Campaign Chairman Alex Crawford Hoyt warned that the hardest part of the job lies ahead.

"Your example in exceeding the minimum quota set for the first phase of this appeal will encourage and challenge the hundreds of men and women who begin their phase in January," he said.

"Remember that the smaller gifts to come, while necessary to the ultimate success of the campaign, add up more slowly. Whatever the advance gifts and industrial divisions can do from here on will mean just that many more dollars available for hospital beds and facilities in New Castle and Lawrence County."

Largest Subscriptions Today
Largest subscription reported today was for $15,000 from the Pennsylvania Power Co.

Fisher Bros. Dry Goods Co. subscribed $3600.

Matthew Leivo & Sons subscribed $3000.

Details of other gifts will appear Friday.

The previously reported subscription of J. E. Raffel for $1000 was made in memory of Naomi Conn Silverman.

Another memorial gift, previously reported as to amount, was that of A. H. Gonick for $2000 in memory of Jackie Gonick.

Pa Newc Observes

Special holiday lighting effects at homes around the city for the present season, will end with the displays tonight. Christmas trees are also beginning to be removed from homes in the city, as the holiday week nears its finale.

Watch meetings scheduled for churches of the community tonight appear to be more numerous than for some years on New Year's eve.

Weather conditions did a rapid change yesterday. From a low of around 11 degrees in the morning, the thermometer went up above forty in the late afternoon and evening. Most of the snow on the streets melted off during the night.

Daily Weather Report

United States weather statistics for the 24-hour period ending at 9 a. m. today follow:
Maximum temperature, 45.
Minimum temperature, 15.
Precipitation, .13 inches, rain.
River stage, 4.4 feet.

Statistics for the same date a year ago follow:
Maximum temperature, 29.
Minimum temperature, 16.
No precipitation.

RAYMOND BROWN, 32, of Philadelphia, saw a photo of a Czech girl, Fanny Hochmanova, 25, brought to the U. S. by another refugee. He fell in love with the girl, wrote and proposed to her. She accepted and he sent her money for passage on the Queen Mary and also posted $500 bond with the American consulate that she wouldn't become a public charge. The girl came here to marry Brown. They will soon wed. Brown and the girl are pictured.

Fullerton To Head Grange Division In Hospital Campaign

W. Sharp Fullerton, prominent county farmer and master of the Pennsylvania State Grange, will serve as chairman of the grange division in the public phase of the Jameson Memorial hospital expansion fund appeal.

This announcement was made today by Louis B. Round, chairman of the public phase, which begins its work in January.

Mr. Fullerton has called a meeting of representatives of subordinate and pomona granges in the county for Friday night, January 2, in The Castleton at 8 o'clock.

A native of Lawrence county and a former member of the Pennsylvania State Legislature, Mr. Fullerton has served for three years in his present capacity in the grange.

To Aid Division
Those expected to work with the chairman in this division are Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McCullough, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Patterson, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Cory, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Hunt.

Communists Start Purge In Romania

LONDON, Dec. 31.—(INS)—Reports from Romania said today that Communist leaders have begun a purge of Royalists to solidify their new position in the newly proclaimed "people's republic."

The purge was reported to have started among army personnel immediately after the abdication of King Michael.

Ten generals, among them a former chief of staff, Gen. Constantin Jonescu, were sacked.

Some 600 employees of the Romanian finance ministry also were said to have been dismissed.

Orders were known to have been sent out to army officers and troops by War Minister Emile Bodnarus to take a new oath of allegiance to the Communist regime.

Congress Will Get Message On Wednesday, Jan. 7

WASHINGTON, Dec. 31.—(INS)—President Truman will deliver his annual "State of the Union" message to Congress next Wednesday, Jan. 7, the day after Congress reconvenes.

Mr. Truman disclosed today that he will send his economic message to Congress on Jan. 9, and the budget message the following day, Jan. 12.

Six Of 12 Making Prison Escape Still At Liberty

Five Of 12 Desperate Criminals Of Colorado Penitentiary Are Recaptured

SIXTH PRISONER SHOT TO DEATH

CANON CITY, Colo., Dec. 31.—(INS)—A second convict was killed early today by possemen near Florence as the number of criminals still at large after last night's break from the Colorado penitentiary was reduced to four.

Orville J. Turley, 28-year-old murderer from Denver, was shot and killed when he and a companion were surrounded in a shack about three miles west of Florence.

CANON CITY, Colo., Dec. 31.—(INS)—Only 6 of 12 desperate criminals who escaped last night from the Colorado State penitentiary at Canon City remained at large today.

Warden Roy Best reported the capture of the sixth man, R. L. Freeman, 21, at 4 a. m.

Freeman, who was serving a 5-to-29-year sentence for kidnapping, was wounded in the leg when he trapped five miles south of Canon City.

One Prisoner Killed
Best said one prisoner was killed, a guard and a rancher wounded, and the other four escaped convicts caught in gun battles near Canon City.

The warden ordered an air search and an intensified ground (Continued on Page Two)

New Battle Is Developing In Konitsa Area

Communist-Led Greek Guerrillas Send Up Several Waves Of Reinforcements

WEATHER GROUNDS GREEK AIR FORCE

(BULLETIN)
ATHENS, Dec. 31.—(INS)—A fierce new battle broke out in the Konitsa area of northwest Greece today when Communist-led guerrillas sent up several waves of reinforcements in a desperate attempt to capture the city.

The rebel forces, bold new assaults in the face of the advances by Greek regulars moving up on several sectors to aid the beleaguered Konitsa garrison.

Surprise Assaults
The surprise new assaults were launched after it appeared that the main force of guerrillas was retreating toward the Albanian frontier.

The Konitsa garrison was subjected during the night to the three heaviest offensives yet launched by the rebels after guerrilla reinforcements were sent into the fighting lines.

The guerrillas charged in three consecutive waves, each of increased intensity, as they sought to overpower the casualty-weakened defenders and enter Konitsa.

Attempts Repulsed
All attempts so far have been repulsed.

The rebels suffered heavy losses but at the same time exacted a high price in blood of the defenders.

Lana Turner To Marry Topping

HOLLYWOOD, Dec. 31.—(INS)—The film colony was startled today with the news that Actress Lana Turner and Henry Topping Jr., the tin-plate heir, will be married as soon as his divorce from Actress Arline Judge becomes final.

The wedding plans were revealed by the Los Angeles Examiner in a front-page story.

The newspaper said that the formal announcement will be made by the January 9 at one of the night-club parties ever given in Hollywood.

Administration Economists Forsee No Sign Of Depression In 1948

STEEL PRODUCTION TO REMAIN HIGH

By WILLIAM K. HUTCHINSON
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 31.—Top administration economists boldly predict today that the American people will prosper in 1948 while enjoying the highest living standards on earth despite high prices and lowered savings.

No Depression In 1948
The government authorities say forcefully that there will be no depression in the United States in 1948.

The federal men say the bellwether of American business—steel production—will remain high throughout the new year.

A survey of government statistics shows the old year ends in this fashion:

Disposable personal income (after income taxes), running at a rate of about 186 billion dollars, highest in all American history, as year ended. Prospects good for 1948.

Steel Production
Steel production: Highest in peacetime history, closing year at about 86 percent of capacity after (Continued on Page Two)

Ready To Greet New Year

Welcoming the New Year in traditional style, Movie Starlet Dorothy Patrick is all set to set 1948 on fire.

Community Prepares To Greet New Year

Along with some 140,000,000 other Americans, Lawrence county citizens will bid 1947 goodbye to night at midnight and usher in a brand new year, 1948.

After packing a load of international troubles, Gromyko's vetoes, the question of whether Walcott won or not, and the high price of groceries, Old Man 1947 bows out, limping a little, but probably glad to get away from it all.

In his place we will greet a brash youngster who doesn't know a veto from a photo, but who is going to learn, but fast.

Different Greetings
Almost every citizen has his own ideas on how he will meet and greet the new year. Some of the churches will hold watch night services, some folks will go to the movies, some expect to greet the new year in a glow of exuberance superinduced by a generous helping of 100-proof, and still others will go to bed. It's all a matter of taste.

Restaurants, cafes and clubs have plans for a spot of whoopee, with paper hats, noisemakers, floor shows and a bite of breakfast at three in the morning.

But almost everyone expects to meet the new youngster before he gets old enough to exchange his loin cloth for the New Look. His tour of duty is expected to last until midnight December 31, 1948, so those who miss him tonight can say howdy in the morning.

Will Be Leap Year
Those athletically minded lads and lasses who expected to greet the new year on skates seem to be doomed to disappointment. (Continued on Page Two)

At the conclusion of the banquet City Treasurer Bernard Hanlon presented to the retiring councilman a beautiful billfold, a token of the esteem in which city hall employees and friends hold him.

Amog others who made brief remarks concerning Mr. Davies' conscientious service to the city were: former Mayor Charles B. Mayne, Edna Reinhold, Police Chief Robert Hanna, Health Supt. Dr. W. A. Womer, Solicitor R. M. White, Fire Inspector Frank Sargent, Ed. Fritz and City Controller W. A. Moore.

The retiring councilman said it had been a pleasure to have worked with Mayor Haven, whom he termed a business mayor and said that while they did not always agree, they compromised and "settled problems to the advantage of the citizenry."

"I'm leaving behind me good friends—people who as employees in city hall, cooperate for the betterment of the city," he said after thanking the banqueters for the token of esteem.

Message For New Year Given By President

Pledges Continued Efforts Toward Achieving Lasting Peace

NOT DISCOURAGED SAYS PRESIDENT

By JAMES LEE
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 31.—President Truman gave a New Year message to the nation and the world today, pledging his continued efforts toward achievement of a lasting peace in 1948 and declaring "I am not discouraged."

The chief executive told his news conference that he has every confidence in ultimate attainment of world amity and that he believes all countries eventually will cooperate in making the United Nations an effective instrument for permanent peace.

Impromptu Message
The president's message was given in an impromptu manner.

But the earnestness with which he spoke gave dramatic emphasis to the heartfelt sincerity of his remarks.

He made it plain that he was prepared to devote all his energies toward establishment of a common ground on which international problems could be resolved without bitterness.

The president wished all present at his news conference—and all the (Continued on Page Two)

Truman Seen As Undisputed '48 Candidate

By ROBERT G. NIXON
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 31.—President Truman enters the new year as the undisputed, though unannounced, candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination.

His policies for the twelve-month stretch ahead, both at home and abroad, already are sharply defined by the events of the past year and the cross-currents of political party rivalry.

The "Truman doctrine" and Marshall plan—both frankly aimed at further incursions of communism into Europe—are the pillars of the administration's foreign policy.

To Renew Appeal
The Chief Executive will renew within ten days an urgent appeal to Congress to give him powers to halt soaring prices and curb inflation.

Mr. Truman feels so strongly about the necessity of compulsory controls to force prices down and prevent a runaway inflation, with resultant disastrous depression, that he is ready to make this his main domestic battleground for 1948.

Already injected vociferously into pre-campaign skirmishes between Democrats and Republicans, the question of who is to blame for them is expected to be the principal issue in the presidential election campaigns.

No startling new presidential proposals are now in the making.

You can stay at home with a group of friends, you can hie for a midnight spot, you can read, or play auction bridge, or look for some fun that is a bit out of the ordinary.

Can toast the new year in wine or milk, or a bottle of ginger ale, but remember friend there are beverages that will possibly land you in jail. But whatever you do, and wherever you go, there's this little thing to say, "Happy New Year" friends, and a lot of good health, it's warm, fifty-one today.

Births At Jameson Memorial Hospital Establish New Mark

Last Year Saw New Record Established For Number Of Babies Born At Hospital

The year, which will end at midnight tonight, will see a new high record mark for births at the Jameson Memorial hospital, which may not be broken for some time to come. With a few more hours yet to go, the unofficial number of births recorded at the hospital totaled 1,439, which is 164 more than the previous high mark of 1,275 set last year.

The birth rate started increasing by leaps and bounds in July 1946, and continued on for a 12-month period ending in July of this year, when it started to fall off.

While there was only one less birth in July of this year, against July of the previous year, the succeeding months of the year have shown a marked decline. The shrinkage this month will be around 50 from December 1946, when the peak was reached with 145 births. March of this year stands second with 141.

Most of the employees of the New Castle Post Office will have a holiday tomorrow, in observance of New Year's Day. There will be no city, window, or rural service during the day.

Special delivery service will be maintained throughout the day, however, and there will be the usual collection and dispatch of mails on holiday schedule.

TO FOREGO DIP
PITTSBURGH, Dec. 31.—(INS)—Ralph Unglo, the Pittsburgh grocer who has a penchant for taking New Year's day swim in the Allegheny river, will forego his annual dip this year.

SEE PROSPEROUS YEAR IN NATION

running sometimes at nearly full capacity during 1947; prospects excellent for new year, though facing ultimate threat of foreign competition by resumption of steel production in other countries that shared markets in prewar years.

Other production: All production up during 1947, except lumber, which was steadily improving as year ended; good prospects for all production in 1948 due to need for replacing worn-out things, ranging from plants and factories themselves down to roads and clothing.

Freight Tonnage
Freight tonnage: High throughout year. Good prospects for 1948 but will include shipments overseas which are not a highly favorable factor.

Electric Power: Production at all-time peak, reflecting industrial activity; prospects for greater use in 1948.

Stock Market: Prices down at end of year. Some economists say this reflects a lack of confidence on part of investors. Government economists withhold forecast for coming year.

Corporation Profits: Very high through 1947 and highest in history for many corporations. Expected to remain high throughout new year unless corporations voluntarily reduce their profits.

Government Income: Totals about forty-three billion dollars for calendar year; will remain about as high in 1948 unless Congress reduces income taxes.

Bank Savings: Totalling more than eleven billion dollars as year ends—a very high figure—but low compared to wartime savings which ran as high as thirty five billion dollars in 1944. Rate of savings, about 6.7 percent of disposable personal income, is lowest rate since before the war.

Prospects are that savings will remain down in 1948 due largely to high cost of living. Economists say this is an excellent economic condition because it reflects a great turnover in business and maximum use of money. They seem to ignore the old rainy day adage.

Bankers say high prices are destroying thrift because people have to spend their savings in order to live. Thus their reserves are eliminated and they will have nothing left for the rainy day. But they had eleven billion dollars left as the year ended.

NEW BATTLE IS DEVELOPING IN KONITSA AREA

He is raging with undiminished intensity.

Although Greek military men are confident the garrison can hold out, they admitted its position may become increasingly difficult due to the heavy weather which is delaying the arrival of reinforcements.

Rebels also are taking advantage of the fact that the weather has grounded the Greek air force. It is believed likely they will resist stiffly attempts to dislodge them from heights which they still hold in the Konitsa area.

For 10 days the ice has been thick and slick, but yesterday's thaw and last night's balmy weather added to today's high temperatures, seems to have paroled the idea of skating.

But however and wherever you expect to spend the evening, you can't escape the fact that this is the night. Mister 1948 is a little different from his predecessor in that 1948 will be a leap year. Unattached maidens can make the most of this.

In the meantime, Happy New Year. Be seeing you in 1948.

Colder Weather Expected For Tomorrow. Light Rain Tonight
(By International News Service)
Possibility of a sloppy night for New Year's eve celebrants in western Pennsylvania was forecast today, with colder weather expected tomorrow.

Temperatures generally were far above freezing throughout the area today, but light rain or drizzle was expected this evening, with the mercury dipping below the 32-degree mark before morning.

Snow was expected in the mountain regions.

The temperature dropped to 5 below zero at Kane yesterday, the coldest of the winter at the "ice box of Pennsylvania."

In the meantime, equipment is rolling into the plant every day. Both by truck and rail, equipment and machinery is arriving daily and the installation work is about ready to start.

The local unit has been incorporated as the Valley Manufacturing company, a Pennsylvania corporation which will be a subsidiary of Hudson Motor Car company. The name Valley is rather a coincidence. It not only describes the physical location of the plant, but it is also the exchange name of the Hudson telephone exchange in Detroit.

Couple Badly Hurt When Auto Skids On Rose Point Bridge

John Roberts, aged 59 years, and his wife, Mrs. Julia Roberts, aged 64, of 349 Broadway street, Bedford, O., are undergoing treatment in the Jameson Memorial hospital for severe lacerations of the face and contusions, received when their automobile skidded on the roadway of the Rose Point bridge, crashing into the superstructure, Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Roberts were en route to Florida for a vacation and failed to heed the reduce speed signs, according to state police. When they arrived on the bridge, they found the pavement coated with a thin sheet of ice, from the rain which had fallen. It is believed Mr. Roberts applied his brakes, causing his car to skid almost the entire length of the bridge before it crashed, and blocked the roadway. Paul D. Genkinger, of 1004 Butler avenue, who was following the Roberts' car was unable to stop and plowed into the wrecked vehicle. The Roberts' car was badly damaged. They were brought to the hospital here in an ambulance.

Two Injured When Auto Tire Blows Out
Alfonso Longiotti, aged 29, of R. D. 5, Greenville, and Joseph Bunton, aged 24, of Main street, Greenville, were treated at the Jameson Memorial hospital at 4:45 p. m. Tuesday for injuries received when a tire on the car driven by Longiotti blew out, on route 18, north of the city. The car overturned and went into a ditch.

Longiotti suffered brush burns of the head, left shoulder and elbow, while Bunton had abrasions of the scalp and contusions of the back and right hand. They were able to leave after treatment.

nation—a happy and prosperous 1948.

He then gave expression to his hope for world peace, remarking that he hadn't intended to make a speech, but that it looked as though he were going to do so.

Mr. Truman said 1947 had been a good year in many ways. But he admitted it perhaps had not been as good as it could have been, and added:

Confident Of Future
"I am still confidently looking forward to a world peace in which all the nations can agree—and the proper implementation of the United Nations."

He observed that it had taken 80 years for the United States constitution to be properly implemented.

Asked if he had made any New Year resolution of his own, Mr. Truman remarked that he thought a lot of people should make resolutions, but that he didn't intend to make any himself.

He punctuated that statement with a chuckle which touched off a roar of laughter in the room.

Pressed to reveal who he thought should make resolutions, the president declined to be specific but he believed his interrogators should know to whom he referred.

asked that details of the oral arrangement under which the broker handled Graham's account be furnished if there is no written order.

Members of Congress probing speculation also prepared to inquire into Chicago Board of Trade regulations governing accounts in which brokers are given a free hand to decide what to buy and sell for their clients.

One Washington broker said that under Board of Trade rules brokers may handle "discretionary" accounts only under certain conditions and restrictions.

Holliday, 902 West Clayton street, New Castle, were united in marriage in the music room of North hall, Slippery Rock State Teachers college, Saturday evening, December 27, at 7:30 with Rev. David D. Webb of Enon Valley performing the double ring ceremony.

Relatives and friends attended the ceremony and the bride's sister, Mrs. John McNeese, was her matron of honor. Raymond Holliday of Leesburg was his brother's best man.

Following their return from a wedding trip to Cleveland, O., Mr. and Mrs. Holliday are at home in their newly furnished apartment on the Beaver Falls-Darlington road.

The bride is a member of the faculty of the West Mayfield borough schools, Beaver county, and is a graduate of Slippery Rock State Teachers college.

Mr. Holliday, who graduated from New Castle high school and Westminster college, is employed at the American Cyanamid company plant here.

CLUB CELEBRATES 16TH ANNIVERSARY

Mrs. Charles Clark, of Round street, was hostess to members of the W. C. club in her home Tuesday evening for the club's sixteenth anniversary celebration. Three tables of 500 were the diversion during the evening with high scores going to Mrs. Mary Koss and Mrs. Jack Clark.

Five new members were taken into membership, Mrs. Catherine Carney, Mrs. Margaret McDowell, Mrs. Jack Clark, Mrs. John Winkler, and Mrs. Harry Clark.

Election of officers resulted as follows: president, Mrs. Sadie Lang; secretary, Mrs. Catherine Carney; treasurer, Mrs. Charles Clark; flower chairman, Mrs. Joseph Flynn; reporter, Mrs. Elmer Bigley.

Later the hostess served a sauerkraut supper with Mrs. Nina Skaggs as aide. A large cake was decorated appropriately to the anniversary occasion.

On January 14 Mrs. John Winkler, of 10 Homestead street, will be hostess.

ST. JOHN'S W.M.S. NAMES OFFICERS

MARCUS-BEJGER VOWS PLEDGED

Miss Annamie Marcus, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Marcus, of 801 Hazel street, McKeesport, and Theophil V. Bejger, of Alexandria, Va., son of Mrs. Pauline Bejger, of 6910 Clement avenue, Cleveland, O., were married in St. Joseph's church in New Castle, on December 27 at 11 a. m. with Rev. John M. Unger officiating at the double ring ceremony.

The bride wore a train-length wedding gown of ice blue slipper satin with a sweetheart neckline caught with blue pearl clips and an insert of pearls at the waist. Sprays of orange blossoms formed the headdress from which her veil of ice blue illusion fell. She carried a white prayer book with a marker of white carnations and white mums and streamers knotted with the baby mums and fern.

Her sister, Miss Pauline Marcus as maid of honor wore a gown of gold bengaline with a victorian neckline and bustle back and her flowers were a colonial bouquet of pink and yellow and white mums tied with yellow ribbon.

S/Sgt. Daniel Cimino, U. S. M. C., served the groom as best man.

Following the ceremony there was a reception for 50 guests in the home of her sister, Mrs. William Gebhart and Mr. Gebhart, in Mt. Jackson. At 1 o'clock a wedding dinner was served at a table arranged in appointments of silver and white and centered with a four-tiered wedding cake and white candles.

Aides were Miss Mary Marcus, Miss Barbara Wellner, Mrs. Edward Fox, and Mrs. Howard Fair.

Mr. and Mrs. Bejger left by plane on a wedding trip to the eastern states and will take up residence in Apt. 201, Mary Lee building, Beverly Plaza, Alexandria, Va.

Mrs. Bejger, who attended St. Joseph's school here, is a staff sergeant in the Marine Corps Women's Reserve. S/Sgt. Bejger attended East Technical school in Cleveland, O.

NEW YEAR'S RESOLUTIONS

Man's mad rush for wealth and his lust for power so overshadow his pursuit of health, happiness and contentment that the custom of New Year's resolutions is as much out of date as a hand-winder automobile. Man's selfish habits do not seem to diminish as the numerals denoting the world's age increase.

Man has always known he brought nothing into the world and can take nothing out of it, but that knowledge does not lessen his desire for selfish conquest. In civilization's wild haste the selfish pace leaves little time for resolutions on the day starting a new calendar year.

What a New Year this would be if by some magic power the people of this world could have the morbid desire to search for and listen to the worst of man transformed into an equal desire to hear and repeat the better side of life! Why does bad news travel faster than good news?

The love of scandal, the desire for slander and the delight in the misery of others are a cancerous growth even in as literate a nation as this.

Divorce sets tongues never heard to delight over happy marriage waggling, as they take an unholy glee in seeing two souls wrecked to be followed by public discussion. A boy gone wrong evokes more comment than the boy who wins a scholarship. The automobile accident becomes a better story if alcoholic drink gives it a scandalous rue. The desire to hear the worst deafens the ears in time to all that is good.

Why expect world peace until men can be at peace with one another? Brain power has yet to dominate animal power. The desire for conquest is no less strong today than when warfare was the chief industry. Only the implements employed are different.

It is perhaps futile to ask people to lay down the yardstick of dollars and cents and measure a man by his character—but if such a suggestion were followed it would constitute a great resolution for New Year's Day in the year one thousand, nine hundred and forty-eight.

DON'T SELL HIM SHORT

In an address in Chicago, Henry Agard Wallace, former Vice President and former Secretary of Agriculture, declared himself as an independent candidate for President in 1948.

As a piece of oratorical carpentry his speech was a classic. As an example of forensic beauty it was still good. As a piece of dangerous, anti-American propaganda it was in a class by itself. His theme was Peace, but back of the beneficent features of Peace was a dangerous philosophy that thinking Americans will do well to consider.

Mr. Wallace pleaded for international peace, which everybody wants. He quoted Gideon in support of his stand, he condemned both the Republican and Democratic parties as the tool of Wall Street but he betrayed his real purpose when he shouted "we are trying to hem Russia in."

Mr. Wallace's candidacy will draw considerable support. To his side will come the so-called "lunatic fringe," the Daily Worker, the confused liberal, the parlor pink, the fellow traveler, and these bemused souls who believe that international peace can be obtained through well turned phrases.

Perhaps he has done America a service. For by his announcing himself as a candidate he has given the "crackpots" a rallying sign. His candidacy may divide the next general election into three groups, real Republicans, real Democrats, both of whom can be classed as hammer and sickle are a sign of freedom.

Don't sell Henry short. It happened in Germany back in 1923. A wild eyed mystic with a funny mustache started a fight in a saloon in Munich. We laughed his efforts off as clowning. His name was Adolf Shicklegruber, or to know him better, Adolf Hitler.

Whether Henry's candidacy means the insurance of a Republican victory is not the important thing. It may mean that. It may not. More important is that it may be the incipience of an anti-American movement that unless crushed in its budding may mean disaster.

From now on we can expect to hear passionate appeals for international peace, justice, the brotherhood of man, and other fulsome phrases in behalf of Henry Wallace's candidacy. His candidacy is dangerous, not that it might elect or defeat the candidate of one of the major parties, but that it might well be the beginning of a movement that could end in bloodshed and oppression.

Henry Agard Wallace is the victim of frustration. Denied the Vice Presidency in 1944 he has adopted a course of rule or ruin. He has attracted many people to his cause. Now that he has come out definitely for the Presidency, it is time for Americans to smack him down.

When somebody finally solves the high cost of living problem, he can be called in to do his stuff for the traffic snarl.

Future wars will be fought in the Arctic, it is predicted. Thus the present cold affair will take on still lower temperatures.

In View Of News Of The World

By J. C. Ostreicher, INS Foreign Director

Death has removed from the stage of history a weak little man who bore the title of king without grace or dignity and the curtain has been run down for the foreseeable future at least upon the once-powerful House of Savoy.

Probably no monarch has been less mourned by his countrymen in modern times than Victor Emmanuel III, whose passing at Alexandria caused hardly more than a ripple of interest in the fledgling Italian republic.

Future historians will have varying things to say about the undersized sovereign who never ruled his country well. But they will agree that if it had not been for Victor Emmanuel there never would have been a Benito Mussolini at the head of a Fascist Italian State bent upon aggression and conflict.

Mussolini Won
The shoemaker's son gambled upon the king's vacillation and lack of practical political knowledge and won—for a time at least.

It was common knowledge that the army opposed Fascism. Had the king been able to find the courage to give a single order when Mussolini began his "march on Rome" aboard a pullman car, the revolution would have been put down in short order.

But Victor Emmanuel always took the line of least resistance. His interests were his immediate family, his coin collection and a penchant for solitary fishing trips.

For the rest, he was satisfied if Mussolini would let him live in peace. He was willing to wear a black shirt, give the Fascist salute and inaugurate new buildings and railway stations.

Not Buried On Italian Soil
Yet despite this mockery of royal dignity and power in which the king lived, it may be significant that the present Italian government would not countenance his burial on Italian soil.

An official explained that any such ceremony might distract the Italian people from their new republic.

This sounds very much like a confession that the regime is not too sure of itself and fears the possibility of an upsurge in monarchist sentiment just as much as it does communism.

Victor Emmanuel himself was never popular and certainly his shrunken remains could hardly be a rallying cry for a restoration. His son ex-King Humbert is not very much of a hero either.

But Italy has had crowns and thrones for centuries and despite Communist agitation, strikes and bursts of political extremism, the country remains Catholic and conservative.

All recognize that the present government is an interim affair at best and its existence depends upon fulfillment of the Marshall plan. Few believe it could be replaced by a monarchy at any time in the predictable future but the name of Savoy—completely eclipsed for the present—still has a proud romantic ring.

MORE PRODUCTION

Wages of workmen, the price of wheat, the shortage in meat supplies; above all, the shortage of automobiles, implements for work in the food processing and the housing and furniture for houses are causing a lot of trouble to the economy of the United States.

Take the automobile industry, for instance, more than one thousand parts companies and two hundred tool and die concerns, scattered in more than thirty states and several areas in Canada, supply the materials from which the country's automobiles are made. These primary suppliers themselves, are supplied with parts and materials by hundreds of other firms. The fifteen thousand-odd parts making up a modern motor car are furnished by an army of workers entirely outside the great motor capital of Detroit.

Wide Distribution Healthful
This wide distribution of production is healthful and contributes to the prosperity of many communities. But it also involves a peculiar hazard to the automotive industry, or stoppage of production in almost any one of these sources of supply means stoppage of production at the major factories. Almost every week for the past two years we have read in the daily news of production halts in one line of parts and supplies or another. Cessation of production of batteries or electrical parts, halting of springs output, lack of tires, lack of seats, lack of wheels, glass, paint, steel, copper, bearings, machine tools, piston rings, handles, hinges, locks and a score of seemingly minor items—any one or more of these can halt the assembly line and the completion of the car for which the public is waiting.

The automotive industry, including manufacture, sales and service, employs eighty-two hundred thousand workers, or one in every seven employed persons in the nation. When it is considered that the stoppage of production by supplies can hold up or stop the entire production of a major automobile plant, it is possible to appreciate the vital importance of (Continued on Page Seven)

The Parent Problem

By Garry C. Myers, Ph. D.

EMPHASIS ON SELF-DISCIPLINE

In your serious reading here and there you must have observed in recent months the bobbing up of the word "self-discipline." That term had almost disappeared from print in articles addressed to parents and teachers and to others responsible for guiding growing children.

Somewhat in like proportion, "self-expression" as an ideal is waning in the press and from the platform. Of course, "self-discipline" has always been in the thought and vocabulary of most religious leaders, of all faiths, though its use by some religious educators other than most of the clergy also waned while "self-expression" rode upon the waves.

Self-Expression
Not so many years ago "self-expression" epitomized in the mind of the general public the philosophy of "Progressive Education." Of course, we all believe still in self-expression so long as it does not unduly hamper self-expression in other people. It is chiefly a matter of emphasis, though the swing is surely to the right in educational thought applied to school and home.

We are even seeing the word "discipline" appearing more often and hearing it said more often in public. Sometimes it is expressed in the same sentence or breath with "self-discipline." Naturally so, since it is hard to imagine self-discipline which had not been started and nurtured through some discipline from without.

In Recent Months
So also you must have heard or seen in recent months the term "self-discipline" and "responsibility" said or printed together. However, those persons who have been reading my column for years have seen these words—self-discipline, discipline, responsibility—many times not only in recent months but also over the many years during which I have been writing this column. During these years I also have used such other words as inhibitions and restraints. Aren't they the handmaids of self-discipline? (My bulletin, "How to Teach To Meaning of No" may be had in a stamped envelope by writing me at 235 East 45th street, New York, N. Y.)

Also for years I have been using such words and statements as "requirement" or "requiring the child to do some things he doesn't feel like doing," the handmaids of responsibility.

Restricted Meaning
But you may say, "Wasn't 'responsibility' an oft-used word in the 'liturgy of Progressive Education'?" Very true. But its use had a very restricted meaning. Training children in responsibility meant, in Progressive Education philosophy, letting them do what they wanted to do (that seemed worth doing), of the sort older persons only are accustomed to do. Apparently "responsibility" never meant carrying through a chosen or assigned job from a sense of duty. Requirements were not parts of practice in responsibility, by "Progressive Educators."

Yet with the reappearance of "responsibility" in non-fiction literature is coming the added meaning of "requirement." Naturally, I welcome this drift of word to the shore from the ships that were wrecked some years ago. So do you, no doubt.

They Say

WASHINGTON — Brig. Gen. Wallace H. Graham, White House physician, says his grain dealings were the work of his broker to whom he gave free rein: "I told him I would no more interfere in how he should conduct his business than I would ask him for advice on how to perform an operation."

COLUMBUS, O. — Gov. Thomas J. Herbert denies knowledge of liquor law violations as charged by the Steubenville Ministerial Association: "We know nothing of their complaint, even after checking with (liquor director) Dale Dunifon."

KANSAS CITY, Mo. — Sen. Robert A. Taft, (R), comments on Henry Wallace's candidacy for president as an independent entry: "I have made it a practice not to comment on candidates—or supposed candidates—or their personalities."

CHICAGO — Henry Wallace discusses a vice-presidential running mate for his Independent party: "It's a little early to name a running mate but I would hope that he holds the same views I do."

Words Of Wisdom

The pleasantest things in the world are pleasant thoughts, and the greatest art in life is to have as many of them as possible.

"Hardy Perennial"

Need Action In Year Ahead

(By THOMAS L. STOKES)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 31. — A book that lay on display for the holiday trade attracted the eye and invited the soul away and away.

It was about a cruise down the inland waterway to Florida. On the jacket was a smart-looking motor launch the kind most of us dream about, and most of us can only dream about. Away the mind went away from the jostling, hectic throngs, down that waterway, a gleaming road passing now among the sand dunes, now among the palmettos and live oaks, winding through the Golden Isles of Georgia, drifting through the sleepy swamps, and on, if I could have my way as pilot, to Key West at the tip of Florida.

How nice to get away from it all—the year we've just been through, and the year we are facing.

And there, at Key West, to sit on the dock with a fishing line, not caring whether they bite or not, watching the boats slowly come and go, feasting on the changing colors of the water, drinking in the warm sun.

Memory of Key West
There is a memory of Key West that comes back from not so many years ago. My wife was driving me to Miami to catch a train to go back to the cold north after a vacation and we stopped at a roadside stand to get some breakfast. A man stood lazily at the counter, passing the time of day with the young woman who tended it.

"You haven't got anything to do, have you?" she asked. "I've got to write a letter to-morrow," he drawled. "That was back before the war. Key West was placid among her shining waters. A couple of officers and a handful of enlisted men managed the peaceful Navy Yard. The war changed all that. Key West suddenly came alive with sailors and soldiers and submarines and airplanes and all the paraphernalia of war."

And Key West and all of America was changed forever after by all that. In the days before all that, it didn't seem to matter so much to individuals what happened in Germany, or Italy, or Poland, or Russia, or France, or China or Japan, or what somebody in Washington did or did not do about it. And that was only the day before yesterday, and not at all a long time ago.

Now It Does Matter
Now it does matter, and being a citizen has become a responsibility not alone to our community and the nation, but to the world, whether we like it or not. We've had a confusing and tense year when the government in Washington, including Congress and the administration, did not seem able to make up its mind exactly what to do about this, that and the other.

We now have completed that year, but we wake up to find ourselves with quite a batch of problems that piled up in that year of confusion. They require quite a batch of resolutions. There is inflation and high prices. And Europe is still in trouble. She was coming out slowly from the war when a drought ruined a great part of her crops and her people haven't got enough to eat.

We have made a couple of resolutions: to do something about high prices here at home, and to do something for Europe by what we call the European Recovery program to help her to help herself. For we know that unless Europe gets on her feet then we'll suffer, too, in time.

Problems Affect Us All
These things that we must do are no longer something that somebody here in Washington can do for us. For these problems affect us for a long time to come. This has been called a test of the world leadership we have assumed, and it is. It is, consequently, a test of each one of us, for it is our individual decisions that will make up the national decision that somebody here in Washington must execute.

In the year ahead of us we've got to act. We can wait no longer. Unfortunately, we can't just write a letter to-morrow and dismiss it. And we'll have to take that cruise another year, if ever, in our own lifetime.

Looking At Life

By Erich Brandeis

I have a good mind to sue Dr. Thurman B. Rice, of the Indiana State Board of Health, for libel. Not that he has libeled me, but, what is worse, he has libeled one of my very good friends.

Dr. Rice has just declared that there is absolutely no nutritional value to spinach and that Popeye of the comic strips couldn't get enough energy out of all the spinach he could eat to lift his pipe out of its mouth.

This column will appear in many papers that do not publish Popeye, but I take Popeye only as a symbol. How can Dr. Rice or any other scientist dare to impugn the teachings of the comic strips and to declare himself a wiser man than the creators of Popeye or Blondie or Li'l Abner or Steve Canyon or Dick Tracy or Little Annie Rooney or the many other comic strips that, as an half-wit intelligent American knows, are the last word in authority and erudition?

Dr. Rice says that spinach and rhubarb contain oxalic acid and oxalic acid is bad for people. So what?

Hasn't Popeye proved year after year that spinach is good for people and makes them strong and smart?

All we have is Dr. Rice's word. But Popeye has given us proof. You have seen it on weekdays in black and white and on Sundays in full color that spinach is good for people.

Has Dr. Rice given us proof? Have we ever seen a picture of oxalic acid or of anybody who has not been made strong by eating spinach?

I have read so much about the comic strips being an evil influence upon the young.

I deny that allegation. For many years I have been connected with the syndicate that handles many of the country's great comic strips.

I have seen thousands of letters from all kinds of people, proving that the comic strips are a definite and an influential part of American life.

They fire the imagination; they make the impossible possible; they change the humdrum of daily life into great and noble adventure.

More than 99 per cent of all the American newspapers publish comic strips. And I daresay that almost 99 per cent of all the people in America read and love their comic strips.

I shall not sue you for libel, dear Dr. Rice.

You may be right at that about spinach not being particularly valuable for the stomach.

But how about spinach and comic strips as food for the imagination?

"As a man thinketh so is he," you know.

Looking Backward Over '47

(By Holmes Alexander)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 31.—There was the old lady who said to Thomas Carlyle, "I accept life as it is," and to whom the old fatalist replied, "Madam, you'd better". No worse advice I think could be given a person or a nation, and the most encouraging thing to note on New Year's Eve is that in 1947 the American people totally ignored Carlyle's defeatist suggestion. Instead of taking life as we found it in this miserable post-war world, we pledged our political, industrial, and moral utmost to make the world over.

Refuse To Mingle Our Tears
This seems reason enough to refuse to mingle our tears with those who think that 1947 brought us to the brink of disaster and that 1948 yawns before us like the grave of hope. It seems to me that those who lament in mournful numbers are either practicing a fashionable pessimism or are making a mistake common to all calamity howlers. They observe the fact that America has been facing dire problems, but they ignore the fact that the nation has its own great energy and ingenuity in meeting these problems. It would be hard to name a time of peace—if that's the name for it—when the American people expressed such a concern for the world's well-being and resolved so greatly to use their strength and wealth for the benefit of mankind.

Evidence All Is Not Lost
For those who heed cheering evidence that all is not lost, a check list of the year's events is now in order. It was a year in which we came to an almost complete parting of the ways with Russia. But we did so on our volition and by refusing to play a weak-kneed part. No greater hope shines in the world today than that the United States has determined to be the boss and not the bystander in the international scenes.

It was a year in which the United Nations Organization showed signs of running down like an unwound clock. But American hands have been tinkering with the inner works and there is more chance than ever that ways will be found to make the U. N. serve the world. A year ago who'd have guessed that we would have found a way to by-pass the Soviet veto? We have done so by General Marshall's invention of the Little Assembly. A year ago who'd have supposed that the U. N. had the fortitude to deal with the Palestine problem? The present year ended with the U. N. reaching for the whistle with which to call a police force to put down rioting in the Holy Land. Whether or not such a force succeeds in restoring peace, it seems better to have tried and lost than never to have tried at all.

Good Effects On Europe
It was a year in which the European Recovery Plan began to take shape, a year in which America laid down a large bet in favor of Democratic Capitalism. This act of faith had good effects in Europe. France and Italy summoned the spunk to put down Communist uprisings. England showed the courage of a hard-to-beat people and seemed to have turned an economic corner into the long road toward recovery.

It was a year in which legislative government was restored in Washington after long years of government by presidential manifest. Whatever the failings of the 80th Congress, it showed strong conviction and introduced the people to assertive leadership in Senators Vandenberg and Taft whose talents were so long obscured in a minority party.

Americans Have Good Year
It was a year in which Americans at home had more to be thankful for than is generally recognized. There were good profits and high wages. There was full employment and so much food that we could ship grain abroad without serious deprivation. Our housing industry began to find its pace, our schools and colleges educated more students than ever before. Taxes and prices, like the fleas which remind the dog that he is still a dog, were the major annoyance. But it would be an ungrateful nation which could not thank its lucky stars even while scratching its fleas.

By and large, it was a good year because the country refused to let it be a bad one.

NEW YEAR THOUGHT
How to have a happy year?
Wish I knew.
In this world of doubt and fear,
What to do.
Time is granted day by day.
Nothing more!
Sun will rise and slip away,
As before.

Neither more nor less allowed
Through the year
To the humble or the proud
Living here.

All the days will come and go
In their turn.
But what happiness we'll know
We must earn.

How this year shall we review
When it ends?
On the way we live it through
That depends.

Health Talks

By DR. W. A. WOMER

City Health Superintendent

DOCTORS AND TEACHERS
The health department has a lot of helpers but perhaps doctors and teachers are the best.

Doctors are always figuring on ways to prevent disease. They work at it all the time and all of us get the benefit.

Teachers keep posted on the best methods. They can spot a sick youngster in a jiffy. They seem to be able to see a mile away.

Dad may be able to lick every other Dad in the block but teacher is the last word on health.

Mom may insist on Butch washing behind his ears but the little red headed teacher sees that he does it.

Vaccination and immunization are hard to do and hard to spell but doctors and teachers see to both.

District Attorney Makes Annual Report

District Attorney Leroy K. Donaldson today submitted his annual report of the conduct of his office in the past 12 months. The statement, which is self-explanatory, follows:

No abnormal increase in the volume of crime has been noted during the past 12 months in Lawrence county. This year a total of 495 cases received the attention of the district attorney's office as compared with 465 cases in 1946. The total of fines, costs and forfeitures collected and paid into the county treasury during the year was $19,272.64.

The criminal docket is up to date. With two or three necessary exceptions, the year has ended with the disposition of all cases either by guilty pleas or by jury trial. This also has been an unusually successful year for winning pleas, thus dispensing with jury trials, and saving hundreds of dollars in court costs and expenses. The obtaining of pleas this year resulted in the abolition of one of the four sessions of criminal court, the September trial term.

133 Felonies
The docket records for 1947 maintained by the office of the district attorney show that 133 cases, or approximately 27 per cent of the total, involved felonies. Offenses against property supplied a large number of felony cases, for example, such crimes as burglary, larceny, automobile theft, receiving stolen goods and arson, totaled 91 cases. Only six cases of robbery and attempt to rob, reached the court this year. So-called "white collar" crimes, such as embezzlement, forgery, fraudulent checks and cheating by fraudulent pretenses accounted for 21 felony cases. Sex offenses, some of which were felonies and others misdemeanors, consisting of rape, sodomy, incest, indecent assault, adultery, fornication and bastardy, and indecent exposure totaled 67 cases.

The offense of operating a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor continues to be an outstanding misdemeanor. A total of 99 cases of so-called "drunken driving" have been prosecuted during the 1947 calendar year. So far this year a total of $10,193.80 in fines and costs have been paid into the county treasury by this group of offenders, with several defendants awaiting sentence by the court. About 10 per cent of these offenders were unable to pay their fines and costs and in lieu thereof served a full month of imprisonment in the county jail.

Domestic Relations Cases
Domestic relations cases totaled 146. These included desertion and non-support of wives and children and also cases of failure to support children and also cases of failure to support children born out of lawful wedlock. The yearly crop of these domestic cases under score the seriousness of the broken family problem in the community. It is unlikely that a study of these cases of family disorganization would reveal any central difficulty or cause. But in most of the cases it would be possible to identify one or more of the following disorders: First, emotional instability, embracing individuals disturbed and upset most of the time, typically erratic, unpredictable, explosive, second, mental deficiency, including those with juvenile minds who therefore are incapable of thinking and acting in terms of adult life and responsibility; third, parental disinterest; fourth, mental illness; fifth, physical illness, especially those chronically ill; sixth, alcoholism, or over-indulgence in liquor; seventh, extra marital sex relations, and finally, irregular employment and similar severe economic strains.

Violations Of Peace
Some of the other cases prosecuted in 1947 by the district attorney's office included violations of the lottery laws, the firearms act and the vehicle code, totaling 44 cases. The lottery prosecutions resulted in the collection of $2,709.16 in fines, costs and forfeitures. Violations of the public peace, disorderly conduct, surety of the peace and assault and battery totaled 37 cases.

Any success that our office has attained in the months that are past is due to the confidence and cooperation of the public in our efforts and to that of the personnel of other law enforcing agencies and departments in the city, borough, townships, county and state. It is our hope that we shall continue to merit such trust and confidence in the months that are ahead.

Ecclesian Club Officers Elected

New Plans Made By Organization For 1948 Including Membership And Activities

Officers have been elected at the Ecclesian club meeting, for the year of 1948, as follows: President, Ray McAuley; vice-president, Frank Haas; treasurer, Joe Braun; recording secretary, George Metz; financial secretary, Clarence Brown; Marshal and publicity, Art Mittler; social chairman, Lee Houk; religious chairman, Jacob DeFonso; youth chairman, Sam Ross; bowling chairman, Mike King; house committee, Frank Kelley.

The Ecclesian club, organized to further Catholic activities in Lawrence county for Catholic families, is at present trying to secure a building for basketball, etc., to be enjoyed by the Catholic youth of the district.

Members expect to start a campaign soon, to increase the membership, and the new members will aid in the endeavor to build an ideal Catholic Youth Center for Lawrence County. All persons interested may contact any member of the Ecclesian club or Women's Ecclesian club.

Additional bowling alleys are expected to be erected soon. Also the members are planning to afford facilities for basketball, baseball and football and other sports that will interest the youths of the community. Dancing will also be enjoyed by the young, while cards and contests are slated diversions for the older folks.

EIGHTY DRUNKEN DRIVERS
In 1946, there were 76 persons arrested by city police for drunken driving. This year 80 were arrested up to yesterday.

Plagued by thieves who were stealing their garden produce as fast as it grew a group of Germans in Berlin put up signs around their garden plots reading "Thieves are asked to leave something."

80,000 Deer Killed In State This Year

HARRISBURG—Preliminary estimates of the total deer kill submitted by field officers of the Pennsylvania Game Commission indicate that at least 80,000 of these big game animals were killed during the season.

Officials estimated, furthermore, that more than 3,000 illegal deer were killed during the entire season as a result of mistakes, carelessness, and deliberate violations of the game laws.

Five figures on the total bag of deer will not be available until all successful hunters get their big game reports into the mails.

According to preliminary reports, there were seven fatal and 51 non-fatal shooting accidents during the recent deer season as compared to nine fatal and 37 non-fatal last year. Commission officials point out, however, that there were still entirely too many accidents, despite their ever-increasing effort to make hunters safety conscious.

HARLANSBURG

The Christmas entertainment, given by the children of the Presbyterian Sunday school, was well attended. Congratulations are being extended to the committee in charge, and the children on the good program. Treats were given the children of the Sunday school. Miss Betty Doloughan, Mrs. Jean McCracken, Mrs. Henrietta Johnson, and Mrs. Martha McKibben had charge of the program.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett McConnell, and Miss Marion McConnell, were Christmas guests of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Collins, of New Castle road.

The W. C. T. U. will meet January 8, at the home of Mrs. Bertha Kneram, at Rock Springs. "Temperance and Missions" is the subject, led by Mrs. Bertha Eakin. Aides are Mrs. Margaret Harlan, Mrs. Florence McKnight, Mrs. Helen Kildoo, and Mrs. Elizabeth Thomas.

Mr. and Mrs. Ora Schmitt of New Castle spent the Sabbath with Mr. and Mrs. Reed McCullough.

The Friendly Mission Circle will meet on Thursday evening with Mrs. Lavilla McFarland. Co-hostess is Mrs. Alice Gibson. Miss Elizabeth Eakin is the leader for the evening.

On Saturday, at 2 p. m., at the Unity Baptist church, the annual congregational meeting will be held.

The Women's Missionary Society, which met December 19, with Mrs. Margaret Harlan, celebrated the golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Gilmore Wimer. They were presented with a blanket and towel set. Mrs. Bertha Eakin arranged an appropriate program of recitations, duets, and readings. Refreshments were served to 38 at a long table beautifully decorated in the holiday colors. A Christmas gift exchange concluded the meeting. The next meeting will be held at the manse on January 23, with Mrs. Bertha Eakin and Mrs. Mabel Kneram. The leader is Mrs. Edith Harlan.

After a short prayer service on Wednesday evening, the Baptist chorale went about the village singing carols to the enjoyment of many listeners.

The Y. T. C. met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Reed McCullough. Twenty-four members were present and four more joined at that meeting. A new study course has been started on the subject "Alcohol and What it Does to the Body and Mind". The next meeting will be the third Friday of January.

The P. T. A. had an enjoyable interesting meeting with the third, fourth, fifth and sixth grade children singing. Readings were given by Jessie Mae McCracken, Carol Seward, Janet McClymonds, Freddy Weidenhof, Lois McCracken, Lois Kamerer, Clair McCracken, Mrs. Morrow read the Christmas story. An accordion solo by Barbara Hall was a feature of the program, which was very much appreciated. Refreshments and a gift exchange completed the meeting.

Messrs. Earl, Ralph and Lawrence Ferree and their families of New Castle, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gould of Windham, Ohio, spent Christmas day with Mr. and Mrs. Reed McCullough and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Kneram entertained 16 at a family dinner on Christmas. ## Our New Year's Wish

Our experience with Pontiac owners has taught us that a lot of pleasure and satisfaction comes into the family circle when a new Pontiac arrives. That is why this New Year's Day seems to be such an appropriate occasion for us to wish that all of you who are waiting for new Pontiacs might have them to enjoy right now.

And it is a pleasure to tell you that the Pontiac factory is doing everything possible to help us make this wish a reality at the earliest possible time. An extensive factory expansion program has been virtually completed, and as fast as additional raw materials are made available, Pontiac production will be increased.

We also want to thank you for your patronage and for your patience and understanding throughout the year which has just come to a close. Our hope for 1948 is that we may continue to merit your business and your priceless goodwill.

Tune in HENRY J. TAYLOR on the air twice weekly

Present Program At Almira Home

Dance And Musical Program Presented For Pleasure Of Almira Home Ladies

For the pleasure of the residents of Almira Home Saturday evening, a group of local women presented a program and treat.

To open the program Vienna-bel Prioretti played two piano solo selections which were appreciatively received.

Dance numbers included a tap number by Beverly Phillips, a variety of aerobic, tap and toe dances both as solos and double, by the Audia sisters, Patsy and Joan.

Maxine Pauline Slavovskiy presented three dance numbers, one a toe dance, a rumba and a boogie-woogie.

To conclude the program, Mrs.
M. Slavovskiy, who accompanied at the piano for the dance numbers, sang "Face to Face".

She, Mrs. Joseph Audia and Mrs. James Phillips were in charge of a treat distributed to the ladies of the home.

How sharp the blade on kitchen knives stays depends on the quality of the steel, the grinding and

NEW GALILEE FIRE DEPARTMENT ELECTS

NEW GALILEE, Dec. 31.—The New Galilee fire department has chosen Frank Jenkins as president for the coming year, while the other officers were elected as follows: vice president, Edward Howarth; secretary, Russell Wilson; treasurer, Hollis Howell, and chief, Fred Jenkins.

The department is 20 years old and owns a fire truck and tank truck, answering calls to Enon Valley, Big Beaver township and vicinity, as well as New Galilee.

SMOKE SCARE IS CAUSE OF ALARM

City firemen were called to the home of Robert Durham of 442
West Grant street at 8:10 p. m.
Tuesday by a still alarm when a defective chimney filled the attic of the home with smoke. No action was required. Assistant Fire
Chief George W. Harper states.
At 3:05 p. m. Tuesday the automatic alarm at the Johnson
Bronze company let go, calling firemen to the plant. There was no fire, however.

NEW BUTLER TAX

BUTLER, Pa., Dec. 31.—City

Mahoning avenue, Youngstown,
O., delivery truck driver for the Ward Bakery, Youngstown, O., was injured in an auto accident
Tuesday at 2:45 p. m. when his truck skidded around the bend near Willowgrove and struck the bridge.

Shadlerline suffered cuts about the nose and right hand and a possible fracture of the left hand.
He is confined in the New Castle hospital, where he received medical treatment immediately following the mishap.

Air Force In Combat Readiness For 1948

By CHARLES E. SEIB
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 31.—The air force announced that it will enter 1948 "in a state of combat readiness."

In an official year-end report, the nation's mighty air arm reported that it is well on its way toward its announced objective: "Creation of a smaller but well-trained, permanent organization of volunteers to replace the war-time air arm that vanished with demobilization."

Bases Reorganized

The report stated that starting last August all USAF bases, at home and overseas, were reorganized into "wing" units, in order to insure that "combat readiness" will be maintained "at all times." The action, it was added, resulted in "increasing the combat units' fighting effectiveness and mobility of movement in event of an emergency."

The air force is well along in carrying out the plan proposed by its chief, General Carl Spaatz, for 55 fully-manned and fully-equipped operational units, plus 15 skeletonized groups.

During 1947 the plan was forwarded by a broad training program, resumption of aviation cadet classes, organization of new groups and modernization of equipment.

The first tactical organization of the air force to receive the new jet-propelled Republic P-84 Thunderjets under the modernization program was the 14th fighter group of the air defense command at Dow Field, Me.

Two Front-Line Bases

This assignment gave the air force two front-line bases in the northern United States equipped with operational jet fighter planes—Dow Field and Selfridge Field, Mich., which is equipped with P-80 Shooting Stars.

In another phase of the air force revamping under the reorganization in which the air arm was divorced from the army and navy, the aviation cadet training program was expanded to train 3,000 students a year. It is expected to furnish about 2,000 pilots annually.

The air force's report listed these other achievements in 1947: Arctic maneuvers which demonstrated that the USAF could operate efficiently anywhere in the polar regions any time of the year.

Completion of a year of daily flights on instruments between Andrews Field, Md., and Clinton county air base at Wilmington, O., by the "all-weather airline".

2,400 Mile Automatic Flight

The completely-automatic 2,400-mile flight to England by a C-54 Skymaster, and its return flight, also with no hands touching the controls, a few days later.

Emergency aid to the victims of the Texas City, Tex., explosion, with the entire air transport command evacuation fleet and the Randolph Field school of aviation medicine being turned over to rescue work.

Improvement in the scope and efficiency of the guided missile program, along with the firing of several German V-2 guided missiles at White Sands, N. M.

A stepped-up program calling for installation of ground controlled approach (GCA) blind landing equipment at 72 locations. Thirty-two sets are already in operation in the United States and 20 overseas.

Development of "the poor man's radar"—a small, lightweight navigational instrument which will be standard equipment on all new transport aircraft.

In addition to foot troubles, high heels tend to throw the entire body out of line due to the necessity of bending of knees, hips and spine.

THE WORLD AND THE MUD PUDDLES

maintaining to the utmost degree possible, uninterrupted output by the small tributary industries. In today's industrial picture, manufacturing is so interdependent that one weak factor may upset the whole machine.

Applies To Many Articles
And this situation applies to the making of many necessary articles made in the United States. Of course, the prices of all these things are very high compared to the price before the war and they are likely to go still higher. Workmen are not only clamoring for more wages, but less hours of work. The workmen don't seem to realize that they could help matters along tremendously if they would let wages and hours alone for awhile. In fact, work forty-eight hours a week, work very much harder than they are working, turning out a correspondingly increased number of articles, for only in such a manner can the price raise be stopped.

The high cost of living, getting higher, is due largely to the indifference of the man turning out the various products made in the United States. If the union leaders would stop and consider the situation that confronts them, they ought to come to the conclusion that men must work in order to receive. If, for instance, the manufacturing plants were turning out, each week, more products than they turned out the previous week, the effect upon the price of everything would be to lessen it, to cheapen it.

NEW STATE BIRTH RATE
HARRISBURG, Dec. 31.—Pennsylvania's birthrate will hit a new high in 1947.
Dr. Norris W. Vaux, secretary of health, said Tuesday 230,235 births recorded for the first 11 months already have exceeded the previous record of 229,452 for the entire year of 1921.

The constitution of Bahamas is largely the same as the one granted the islands in 1620.

Meyer Pazor Directed To Answer Equity Bill Of
Earl H. Pearsall

OTHER EVENTS IN COURT HOUSE

In an opinion handed down Tuesday, Judge W. Walter Braham dismisses the petition of Meyer Pazor, which asks that the service of an equity suit be set aside. The suit arises out of a partnership between the two litigants, Earl H. Pearsall, one of the partners, charges that the place of business was locked up when he returned one day and he was not permitted to enter. With the opinion is an order directing the defendant to answer the bill in equity within 15 days.

LIQUIDATE OLD ACCOUNTS

When the annual statement of the county controller is made up this year, there will be several veteran charges missing. One of them is a sixty cent holdover which went back to 1898 on a lien. There is also one for sixty cents for 1899 and 90 cents for 1900. The report of 1946 showed $112,585.03 carried in the Accounts Receivable. These have been reduced by about half. Controller Andrew M. Dadds states.

95 PER CENT PAID

Deputy County Treasurer Don I. Neal, who will be the county treasurer on Monday, January 5 today said the 1947 current taxes are 95 per cent paid.

Duff And Party Arrive In Dallas To Witness Game

DALLAS, Tex., Dec. 31.—(INS)—Gov. James H. Duff of Pennsylvania and his party of eight reached Dallas by train this morning for the Cotton Bowl football game between Penn State and Southern Methodist.

A large crowd of dignitaries welcomed the easterners at the railroad station. The lone exception was Gov. Beauford Jester of Texas, an alumnus of Texas University, who chose to go to the Sugar Bowl to see the Longhorns play Alabama.

Lt. Gov. Allan Shivers headed the welcoming committee. He was assisted by Al Emerick, head of the Penn State Alumni Association in Dallas, and Janet Blair, movie actress, who was chosen queen of the Nittany Lions.

Miss Blair, whose home town is Altoona, Pa., was accompanied to Dallas by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred B. Lafferty who are close friends of Penn State Coach Bob Higgins.

NEW GALILEE

ALEY-HOUSEHOLDER WEDDING

The Presbyterian Manse in West Bridgewater was the scene of a pretty Christmas Day wedding when Miss Edna Mae Aley became the bride of Carl Wilson Householder, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Householder of Beaver Falls. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Huffman of New Galilee.

The 9:30 a. m. ceremony was performed by Rev. James W. St. Clair, pastor of the church, before a background of Christmas greens and traditional color tones of the season in the living room of the parsonage. The single ring ceremony was used.

The bride wore a two piece suit of blue gabardine with black and gold accessories and her flowers were white carnations. The mothers of the bride and groom wore corsages of baby mums.

A wedding dinner was served for the immediate families at the bride's home with the wedding cake adorning the table. The bride has been employed as a nurse's aid at the Providence Hospital for the past two years. The groom graduated from Beaver Falls High school, class of 1947 and is employed at the B and W Tube Company of Beaver Falls. The couple are at home in the newly furnished apartment at 838 Tenth street in Beaver Falls.

NEW GALILEE NOTES

Pauline Bicelli of Beaver Falls, spent the week end with her parents here.

Edna Mae Henry is visiting in Mt. Holy, N. C.

Pvt. Ray Pione of Fort Sill, Okla., is visiting his parents here.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Householder of Beaver Falls spent Saturday at the home of Lee Huffman.

Mr. and Mrs. James Sullivan spent the week end at Pittsburgh. Edith Tricconi of Deshon Veterans' Hospital at Butler, spent Christmas vacation with her parents here.

At about the beginning of the Christian era, 2000 year ago, the average length of life was around 22 years.

SUGGESTIONS FOR INFORMAL BRIDE

"Is it permissible to carry an arm bouquet at an afternoon wedding when the bride intends to wear an afternoon dress or suit? I intend to have a small reception at a hotel for the immediate family and a few close friends. Is it necessary for me to write invitations to those I desire to be present or is it permissible to invite them verbally; that is, if I do not send out engraved invitations? If written, how should they be signed?"

Answer: (1) While it is permissible for an informal bride to carry an arm bouquet, it is usual and preferable for her to wear a corsage, especially with street-length clothes. Invitations written in ink and signed by the bride are correct and customary at an informal wedding. You may verbally invite those you wish to come to the church only. Formal, engraved invitations are necessary only on the case of a formal wedding.

Question: Do the parents or the godparents give the baptismal fee to the clergyman?

Answer: The father should accompany the baby and its godparents to the church for the christening. Either the father or the godfather may present the fee to the clergyman. It should be sealed in an envelope and actually paid by the father.

Question: When a bride receives a joint wedding gift from her co-workers (15 altogether) must she send separate thank-you notes or will one to the entire office force suffice?

Answer: She may properly send one note addressed to the office manager to be passed around for all to read.

Present your problems to Miss Markel, who will promptly make personal replies to questions from readers including stamped self-addressed envelopes.

Bill To Provide For Storm Sewer

Measure Submitted In Council For Improvement On East Side

OTHER ACTION AT COUNCIL SESSION

Council convened in city hall Tuesday and plans were approved, and a bill submitted, which will result in the construction of a storm sewer from the end of Beckford Street to Huron Avenue, thence to Randolph street thence south to an existing sewer 325 feet from the south line of Arlington avenue. The cost will be paid by the city.

Plans also were adopted for the construction of a five-foot concrete sidewalk on the south side of Croton Avenue extension (old furnace site) the cost to be borne by the city. This was one of the agreements when the Pennsylvania Power company gave the land to the city.

The city clerk, Jack Fritz, reported to council that ordinances in committee, are as follows: Elco Products company water course; Appropriation ordinance; Repairing and resurfacing of streets and another regarding 1948 salaries, which are to be continued at the 1947 rate.

It was reported in council session that Director of property and parks Joseph D. Alexander is confined to his home account of illness.

Upon motion of Finance Director Albert A. Hoyland, council today awarded a contract for the city's compensation to McBride & Shannon, which carried the insurance this year.

Cholera, which recently struck Egypt, is a water-borne infectious disease which, in epidemic stages, is frequently found 90 per cent fatal, death resulting in a few hours.

Beliefs That Matter

Highlights On The Sunday School Lesson

The Golden Text

The Christ.

"If ye know these things, blessed are ye if ye do them."—John 13:17.

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL

(The International Uniform Lesson on the above topic for January 4 is John 20:30-31; Acts 16:11-15; 1 Timothy 4:16; 1 John 5:1-5; the Memory Verse being John 13:17. "If ye know these things, blessed are ye if ye do them.")

We are starting another quarter in our lessons in this new year. The general topic is "Great Christian Teachings", and our particular lesson today is "Beliefs That Matter."

We all have little beliefs and big beliefs. Among our smaller beliefs is that the bus that takes us to school or work, or the train or our father or neighbor who drives us will be ready to take us when we expect them, and that we will arrive on time. Now it may be that owing to a breakdown somewhere this will not come to pass, and we may have to look for other means of transportation or walk or possibly not be able to go to school that day. It will not make too much difference if that is the case. It will interrupt our day's routine, but we may even welcome it as a change.

But suppose we have a big belief—that our parents are honest, trustworthy people and that they love us and will take care of us. What if that belief is shattered by their actions? Our lives might be ruined, certainly our happiness would be. That is a belief that matters!

The last two verses of the twentieth chapter of John are about the Risen Jesus proving to Thomas that he was indeed Jesus, risen from the dead. No doubt Thomas wanted to believe that his Lord was with him again, but he needed proof, or thought he did. And Jesus had satisfied him that it was indeed He, by allowing him to touch His wounds. John tells us, "And many other signs truly did Jesus in the presence of His disciples, which are not written in this book."

But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the son of God; and that believing ye might have life through His name. We can have a "big belief" in Jesus, who never disappoints us.

Paul Visits Philippi

In the 16th chapter of Acts we are told of the visit of Paul and Timothy to the city of Philippi, that "chief city of Macedonia." On the Sabbath the two men went outside the city to the river bank where the Jews went to pray, and they sat down and talked to the women who were there.

Among these women was a business woman who sold the purple cloth worn only by royalty or people of high rank. She worshipped God and she listened earnestly to what Paul had to say. After the talk Lydia was baptized and all her household with her. Then she offered the hospitality of her home to the two missionaries, saying graciously, "If ye have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come into my house, and abide there." None of the Christian missionaries were wealthy men, and they had to depend upon the generosity of their fellow Christians for food and housing, so that this invitation to stay in Lydia's comfortable home while they were teaching, must have been very welcome. Lydia's Christianity certainly was one of works as well as of beliefs.

In his first letter to Timothy in A. D. 64, Paul tells him, "Take heed unto thyself, and unto the doctrine; continue in them: for in doing this thou shalt both save thyself, and them that hear thee." To be firm in their faith is as necessary for leaders in its as to lead the sort of life that goes with the Christian belief.

John expresses this in his first epistle. "Behold, what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called the sons of God: therefore the world knoweth us not, because it knew Him not."

"Beloved, now are we the sons of God, and it doth not yet appear what we shall be: but we know that we shall be like him; for we shall see Him as He is. And every man that hath this hope in him purifieth himself, even as He is pure."

"Whosoever committeth sin transgresseth also the law; for sin is the transgression of the law. And ye know that He was manifested to take away our sins: and in Him is no sin."

Is it not of infinite importance that children should be early taught the importance of these things, so that they may strive earnestly all their lives, not only to be true to their faith, but to manifest that faith in good living?

Victor Pzeny, a former navy man, who resides at 104 Miller avenue, and who enlisted in the Army for the European Command Unassigned for a period of three years on November 24, today stopped in the local recruiting office while home on leave. He states that he is completely satisfied with the Army and wishes he had enlisted sooner.

Pzeny completed a basic refresher training course at Fort Dix, New Jersey, and is at the present time on a nine day delay enroute. Pzeny reports to Richmond, Va., for the purpose of attending locomotive school for a period of six weeks. After the completion of six weeks, Pzeny will report to the nearest port of embarkation, thence to Europe. Pzeny states that he is completely satisfied with conditions in the Army and recommends it as a career for all young men. He further states schooling is available to all who are interested and desirous of learning and cites his own case as an example. Anyone interested in enlisting

MAY

NEW CITY BUILDING

JAMESON MEMORIAL HOSPITAL

JANUARY

Early in the year a pretty Miss, Gloria Doult by name, officially opened the City Recreation Pond for ice-skating—the next day the local Post Office announced that they had put into operation, two new pieces of equipment to speed postal service—Clyde Wick completed 43 years as street car and bus operator in New Castle—the City Detectives' office explained the complicated mechanism behind crime prevention and detection—Arthur Young, a truck driver of Hazelton, Pa., died in a truck crash on the Perry Highway—Charles S. McCaskey, the oldest employee of the local Railway Express office, started his 42nd year on duty in New Castle—the month ended when the United Engineering and Foundry company announced the making of the world's largest casting as The News photographer photographed the lifting of the 472,000 pound monster from its mold.

FEBRUARY

Once more a local beauty started the month by making The News. She was Miss Norma Cunningham who was named by the dance director of Paramount Studios, as the Most Photogenic Dancer in Pennsylvania—two city firemen, William D. Scott and John W. Clarke, retired from duty—two brothers Lewis and William Cartwright started manufacture of hand made aluminum products—the Red Cross planned their campaign for the year—Guy Fullerton distinguished himself as the outstanding sheep and hog grower in the country—as every one else dug themselves out of huge snow drifts.

MARCH

During the windy month Miss Emmeline Mehlman became the Home Economics director for Lawrence county—Miss Virginia Cartwright of the American Red Cross stopped at home for a short visit before leaving for Japan—the historic old tree that stood on the Diamond met the woodsman's axe—and Miss Erma Jean Allen and Gomer Lewis received the 50,000 marriage license to be issued in Lawrence county—while a "rural visitor" parked—not his car—but his horse and cart at a parking meter, depositing his nickel in the meter before leaving.

APRIL

April didn't start with showers, but with a telephone strike that prevented the Nation's gossips from keeping the wires hot and saw the start of The News' Photo Engraving plant—Mayor Haven and City Council broke ground for the new City Hall at the corner of Jefferson and Grant streets—the local State Police installed three-way radio—and 14 ex-servicemen were sworn in as city policemen.

MAY

With the start of May, a deer nearly wrecked the car of Mike Gurgacz at the corner of Highland and Sheridan avenues—the State Highway proposed a new bridge over the Neshannock creek at the foot of Mercer street—Flaherty Field was completed for night baseball—Miss Jeanne Montanary, solo skater with the Ice Capades visited at her home before leaving for Paris where she achieved world wide recognition—laying of concrete was started on the new route 422—Joe Demoise received the sports trophy as the top Titan athlete of the year—and Lawrence county Pomona Grange sent a bred heifer to starving Europe.

JUNE

June made its impression as three died in an explosion at the American Cyanamid and Chemical Corporation—Roland G. Mortimer was awarded the first Victory medal—work got underway adding new floors to the Library—the Shrine Circus played to a local populace—the Optimist sponsored "Air Derby" thrilled crowds at the city airport

—Miss Eileen Gwin became Dairy Queen of this district—the Gospel Tabernacle and the Central Christian churches celebrated Golden Anniversaries while King's Chapel church had its 143rd anniversary—Mrs. Spencer Tracy came home for a visit—and a small boy hooked a 21 inch brown trout under the North street bridge.

JULY

John William Dawson monopolized July's headlines as he died in an attempt robbery of the Household Finance company after battling with police on rooftops in downtown New Castle—a woman escaped serious injury as her car plunged through the guardrail of the viaduct—work was commenced on the King's Chapel road—Commissioners turned city water into the county home—a city bus struck a pole on East Washington street, injuring 10—North Beaver township purchased a new fire truck—and the city sweltered under July sun as the City swimming pool on Neshannock creek and Cascade Park pool drew huge throngs.

AUGUST

The heat carried over into August as Miss Dawn Earlie cooled off by sipping ice-water while sitting on a block of ice in her bathing suit—the 229th Field Artillery Battalion left for camp—steel bleachers were installed at Taggart Stadium—Congressman Louis E. Graham spoke to Pomona Grange—Emperor Hirohito's white stallion was shown here—fire destroyed the buildings of Everglade Dairy at Pulaske—City Council burned $293,000 worth of bonds—Mrs. Mary Ann Marks of the Almira Home noted her 100th birthday—and Mayor John Haven erected the first of the new street signs to go up all over the city.

SEPTEMBER

September started off hot, as fire destroyed the Creasy company warehouse on Grove street with a loss of a half a million dollars—Labor Day saw crowds at the Optimist Orange Crate Derby—following the first day of school, three schools entered The News: Clenmore with four sets of twins; Union High with new lights on their athletic field for night football and NeCaHi starting their football season with a win over Youngstown East—traffic guards came out with new regalia—Patty Berg and Mrs. Freda R. Nolan played a nine-hole exhibition match on the golf course at the Ellwood City Country club—and the paving of route 422 went into the home stretch.

OCTOBER

In October the "new look" was holding reign with the boys at NeCaHi protesting the long skirts—a farmer, Bill Hammerschmidt, entered the news-light with a record crop of potatoes—Loyal Order of the Moose presented the city with a portable Iron Lung—the Voice of the record "Near You", Bob Lamm in person, visited his parents in New Castle—three sets of twins visited the New Castle Hospital—J. B. started a large addition to their present plant—school teachers and State Grange held convention here in October—and the New Castle Library opened once more.

NOVEMBER

The New Castle News started its campaign to have the sharp curves and narrow road at Rose Point better marked—election returns were broadcasted from the Editorial Rooms of the New Castle News in conjunction with radio station WKST—John White retired after nearly 45 years with the B. & O. railroad—city firemen prevented disaster in a tenement fire on Beaver street—a Syrian agriculturalist came to New Castle studying modern methods and American machinery—and Labor leaders held a dinner in The Castleton.

DECEMBER

The big news of December leaves New Castle with a promise of a better New Year. The former Shenango tin mill was taken over by the Hudson Motor Car Company with a hint that smoke will soon be issuing from the now cold stacks—lessor news was the record Christmas rush at the local post office—the Harry T. Burns Detachment of the Marine Corp League presented Alex Crawford Hoyt with a check as part of the Marine Memorial for a room in the Jameson Memorial hospital—the $175,000 B. & O. rest home nears completion—Pennsylvania Engineering Corporation made another, "World's Largest," this time it was a 250 ton hot metal ladle for a steel mill—and Champ, a prize Rhode Island Red rooster, won five first place ribbons at the Madison Square Garden poultry show, for his owner Charles W. Carbeau of Ellwood City.

So with the New Year 1948 at hand, the people of Lawrence county can look forward to a better year with building projects like the new City Hall, the Jameson Memorial hospital addition, a Memorial monument on Courthouse hill, smoke pouring from the stacks of the old tin mill and the wheels of industry turn faster than ever before.

Babsons Business And Financial Forecast Is Presented For Next Year

(By ROGER W. BABSON)

(Copyright—1947—Publishers Financial Bureau, Incorporated)

1948 In A Nutshell

BUSINESS: Watch out after November 2, 1948.
COMMODITIES: Wholesale price peak in sight.
TAXES: Personal income taxes will be somewhat lower.
LABOR: Wages will be somewhat higher than in 1947.
REAL ESTATE: Increased suburban building.
POLITICS: Election year propaganda.
STOCKS: A year for switching.
BONDS: Low-coupon rate, long-term bonds will be lower.

1. 1948 will be, more or less, of a duplicate of 1947. Certainly there will be no "depression" as so many pessimists are talking about, but fundamental conditions will become increasingly less favorable. Watch out after November 2, 1948.

General Business
 2. The above paragraph applies mostly to gross business. Certain industries will show smaller net profits. This means that, in some cases, dividends may be less in 1948. Remember some things may be allocated or rationed again in 1948.
 3. The reconversion from war to peace has been entirely completed. War surplus are pretty well disposed of, and 1948 will even show a resumption of military purchases.
 4. Inventories, quoted both at their price values and their volumes, will increase during 1948. Both raw material piles and manufactured goods will be in greater supply during 1948.

Commodity Prices
 5. Notwithstanding the above paragraph, some allocations or priorities may be reinstated in 1948. The public is sick of high prices and will make demands for some price controls in the case of certain products in short supply.
 6. The retail price of some goods, other than food products, will be higher during 1948 as the final turn has not yet been reached for all types of goods.
 7. We expect to see the peak in wholesale commodity prices sometime during 1948. We, therefore, advise going easy on inventories, especially on borrowed money.
 8. Retail price changes will lag after wholesale price changes. This explains why we expect retail prices on good quality merchandise to hold up for awhile after wholesale prices begin to decline. But 1948 will be a year of war preparations.

Farm Outlook
 9. The total farm income for 1948 should approximately equal that of 1947, but we forecast lower prices for wheat, corn and certain other products. Farmers should certainly diversify more in 1948, get out of debt, put money into improvements and prepare for real trouble someday.
 10. The supply of certain vegetables, fruits and fish products should increase during 1948 and the price of these should fall off barring some weather, insect or blight catastrophes.
 11. Meat will be in shorter supply in 1948 than in 1947. Should the current propaganda to "eat less and have a better figure" gain popularity, upward pressure on meat prices would be greatly reduced.
 12. Farmers will try to get both 1948 presidential candidates to promise further subsidies.
 The above four farm forecasts assume normal weather which we do not attempt to predict.

Lower Taxes
 13. The Federal debt will be decreased during 1948.
 14. No personal taxes will be increased during 1948 and there will be some reductions—perhaps 5 to 10 per cent in the upper brackets and the entire elimination of those in the lowest bracket.
 15. We forecast that the new tax bill will enable a man to share his income tax equally with his wife without sharing his income or property.
 16. The 25 per cent limit on long-term gains will remain unchanged.

Retail Sales
 17. Goods on counters will be of better grade in 1948, even if retail prices hold up.
 18. There will be many "mark-down sales" of goods of inferior quality and curbs on installment buying may return.
 19. The dollar value of all retail sales in 1948 should at least equal 1947.
 20. The unit value of retail sales will be less in 1948 than in 1947; there will be fewer customer purchases in most stores, although each customer may visit more stores to "shop around".
Foreign Trade
 21. Our foreign trade will be less in 1948 than in 1947. We shall help Europe; but we will be on a more economical and efficient scale.
 22. More foreign loans will be made during 1948; but many of these will be direct to business concerns rather than to political governments.

23. There will be considerable competition from other countries in legitimate foreign trade where the credit is good. Other countries will not compete with us in our "charities"; but they certainly will compete for all profitable business.

24. Throughout 1948 war talk and uprisings will continue; but no World War III will start in 1948. War preparations will accelerate.

Labor Outlook
 25. 1948 will see an average hourly wage rise of 5 to 7 per cent. Lower income taxes should increase buying power, but this will be about offset by further rises in the cost of living.
 26. There need be no more unemployment in 1948 than in 1947, but "unemployment insurance" will be taken advantage of by too many unprincipled people.
 27. Wages will gradually see that the Taft-Hartley bill puts a checkrein only on their labor leaders, but not on union membership. Hence, the bitter hatred against this bill will gradually subside. The bill is merely an "SEC" for labor leaders who need it today as much as investment bankers needed the SEC which was started ten years ago.
 28. Any labor legislation during 1948 will be to amend the Taft-Hartley bill and to raise minimum wages.

Inflation
 29. The Inflation Era which we have forecast for several years will remain at this stage until November 2, 1948. There will be no reckless printing of currency or government borrowing in 1948.
 30. 1948 will see a public reaction against "feather bedding," "workless" jobs, and union rules which result in slow-ups. More labor-saving machinery will be installed. The public is gradually realizing that inflation can be beaten only by increased production.
 31. Sometime during 1948 production in many lines will have caught up with consumption which will prevent further price increases in these lines.
 32. There will be many inflation and price investigations during 1948. Both the Democrats and Republicans will try to lay the blame for high prices on the other party.

Stock Market
 33. We believe that 1948 will be a year of switching, for various reasons. One of these will be an attempt to get out of stocks of companies which have most of their assets in big "vulnerable-in-case-of-war" cities into companies whose assets are well distributed and safe from attack.
 34. The administration will try to keep the Dow-Jones Industrial Averages between an upper ceiling of around 185 and a floor of around 165. Commodity speculators will be curbed.
 35. The wisest will not try to pick any special "winners" in 1948; but will diversify broadly and those who have too many stocks will gradually build up good reserves, in cash or governments, for the big break which will come someday.
 36. Careful buyers of stocks will insist on making full payment and avoid borrowing during 1948.

Bonds
 37. We are definitely bearish on low-coupon rate, long-term bonds. Many of these will sell at lower prices in 1948 than in 1947. Money rates will gradually increase.
 38. If congress gives a good reduction in Federal taxes to investors in high brackets, 1948 will see a further falling off in the prices of most municipals and other tax-exempt bonds. As indicated above, however, we do not expect such a desired tax reduction.
 39. In view of the large decline in many preferred stocks during 1947, this rate of decline should begin to level off during 1948.
 40. Investors will give much more attention to diversification in 1948 and not become too heavily interested in railroad securities, telephone issues and other public utilities, many of which are now selling too high.

Real Estate
 41. City real estate will continue to hold firm through 1948, due to less available space caused by pulling down structures to save taxes, to provide parking spaces, etc. There also is a disinclination to build city property in view of the present high inflationary building costs.
 42. Suburban real estate will continue in greater demand with still higher prices during 1948.
 43. Big commercial farm acreage may sell for less during 1948; but subsistence farms located close to established communities will hold up in price.
 44. General building should increase during 1948. Young people are gradually getting accustomed to high building costs and living with their mothers-in-law.
 45. Both office and residential rents will be higher in 1948. Property owners are entitled to receive higher rentals. Only as such are granted will there be as much building as there should be.
 46. Mortgage rates during 1948 will continue about the same as in 1947. These rates are very favorable for those who have the courage to build. However, in 1948, it will be harder to obtain mortgage loans.

Politics
 47. Both President Truman and the Republican leaders will be playing politics up to November 2, 1948. It is now too early to forecast the outcome of the presidential election. The Republicans, however, have so bungled the price controversy that Mr. Truman has a fair chance of re-election.
 48. Congressmen returning from Europe will determine our foreign policy and take it out of the hands of the State Department, the brass hats and even the president himself.
 49. Unless illness or accident interferes, Mr. Truman will be the Democratic candidate, with the possibility of Mr. Marshall being on the ticket with him.
 50. We forecast a greater interest in religion, temperance and civic righteousness during 1948, with continued reaction against denominationalism, intolerance and dogma.

Eleven Pass Test To Operate Auto
 Eleven candidates for the privilege of driving a motor vehicle passed the tests Tuesday, when state police conducted examinations at the Armory. Three other candidates failed. Tests will be held again next Tuesday.
 The names of the successful candidates yesterday are as follows:
 William D. Cunningham, 214 Crescent avenue; Robert S. Moore, 112 West Euclid avenue; William Klee, Jr., 434 Boyles avenue; Joe N. Paris, 1003 Lorraine avenue; Virginia E. Kleeman, R.D. 3; Grace P. Johnson II, 905 Highland avenue; Marshall Passerello, 315 Shady-side avenue; Anthony Dominici, Jr., 615 Pearson street; William Kleiman, 2307 Delaware avenue; Robert E. Tipton, 14 West Garfield avenue; Darrell W. Shoaff, 1010 Wilmington avenue.

An average of 455 persons still die of scarlet fever in the United States every year and there are approximately 145,000 cases reported.

Lions Club Sees Film On Red Cross Disaster Activity

Picture Portrays How Red Cross Is Ready At All Times To Meet Emergencies

New Castle Lions Club members saw an interesting picture at their noon luncheon meeting in The Castleton, Tuesday, when past President Dr. W. E. Flannery, presented the film, "When Disaster strikes," showing the Red Cross in action in every kind of disaster, which strikes this country annually.

Dr. Flannery gave an interesting talk prior to the showing of the picture, explaining the disaster relief work of the Red Cross, and of the great work it does in this country.
 All kinds of disasters were shown, namely: tornado and hurricanes, floods, forest fires, train wrecks, home fires, etc., in which the Red Cross assists several hundreds times a year in this country.

Sam Rashid, vice president, presided at the meeting in the absence of President S. Glenn McCracken, who with Secretary Conway, is attending the PSEA Convention in Harrisburg.

Guests of the club included Sgt. Dave Hamilton, son of Dr. L. W. Hamilton; and Cpl. Burr M. Rogers, Jr., son of Dr. Burr M. Rogers. Both the parents are, Lions members. The young men have just completed a year of service at Shugam prison, Tokyo, Japan, where former Premier Tojo and other famous prisoners have been incarcerated.
 Other guests included W. C. Wilson, of Pittsburgh; Carl Torch and Joseph Fletcher, of this city.

First Methodist Service Tonight

First Methodist church will be open from 6 o'clock this evening to 6 o'clock Thursday evening, January 1, for a 24-hour period of prayer. Each hour on the hour, Rev. James A. Gaiser, the pastor, will conduct a ten-minute meditation period. Edwin Lewis, organist-director of the church, will present meditation music each hour also.

People of New Castle are invited to stop in at the church at any time during this prayer period for their own quiet devotions. The pastor will remain in the church for the entire period of 24 hours. At 11:30 o'clock a watch night service will be held which will last until 12:10 o'clock in the new year. This service of meditation is based upon the example of Jesus who so often went apart to spend the night in prayer.

New Year's Eve Preparations In Miami, Florida

By RUTH BRIGHAM
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

MIAMI, Fla., Dec. 31.—Miami night clubs are offering New Year's Eve fun and frivolity—without spirits—at prices ranging from 25 cents up to $50 a couple, but they haven't found it necessary to put out that "standing room only" sign yet.

For the spirits, you pay extra, plus a 20 per cent tax.

The $50 a couple dinners are offered at the Latin quarter.

The 25-cent spot is Zissini's Borey and the cover is, so the ad states, "to keep the riff-raff out."

Not So Many Reservations
An International News Service survey revealed that there were not too many early birds on the reservation list today. The only request for reservations turned down was at Colonial Inn. They already were filled.

But that Swank club, a few miles north of Miami "in the county," offers an added and apparently appealing attraction—gambling.

The Colonial will serve its celebrating patrons dinner and favors for a moderate $30 a couple, to the tune of Henry Busse's music and Joan Edwards' singing.

The Colonial, however, doesn't depend on its covers to take care of the overhead, where entertainment has often run up to $40,000 a week.

Highest Priced
The Copacabana, which Owner Murray Weinger boasted was the "highest priced on the beach" last year, will take a bow to the Latin quarter, which holds the "most expensive" title this season.

The former offers food and novelties for $30 to $40 a couple, depending on the table location, plus Singer Kay Thompson, while the latter asks $48 a couple for ringsiders and $36 for other tables.

The honky-tonks list their prices in newspaper ads—$2 to $5. No food.

Prices are up over those that welcomed 1947 in a year ago.

COUNCIL MEETING
Last council meeting will be held Friday. It will be for the city to transact final 1947 business.

HARRISBURG, Dec. 31.—(INS)—Harrisburg hospital surgeons today prepared to operate on two-year-old Betty Anderson, of New Bloomington R. D., to save the sight of her right eye which was injured when she fell from a high chair on a broken glass.

The tot's parents told physicians she caused the chair to topple and fell on a water glass which had been on the tray.

New Midget Sized Automatic Pilot Has Been Developed

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 31.—(INS)—A new midget-size automatic pilot has been developed as a possible steering apparatus for the pilot-less aircraft and guided missiles of tomorrow.

Announcement of the development was made today by Westinghouse Electric Corp., which said that unlike other automatic pilots the new device is not affected by rapid maneuvers or bursts of speed.

The midget pilot weighs only 35 pounds and retains control of a plane through loop-the-loops, barrel rolls and other maneuvers.

Westinghouse said the pilot reacts within one tenth of a second to the human pilot's signal or unwanted motions of the plane.

WAMPUM

W. S. C. S. MEETING
Study group of the W. S. C. S. of the Methodist church met Monday night in the church dining room for the annual Christmas dinner and party. Special members of the junior choir, and two college students, Misses Dorris Tebay and Marjory Melke were guests.

"Silent Night" was sung by the junior choir, and following, a bounteous dinner at a table beautifully decorated in the Christmas favors, and an exchange of gifts were enjoyed by all present.

WAMPUM NOTES
Mrs. H. W. Marshall is confined to her home with illness.

Mrs. George Cook home from the Ellwood hospital, is a little improved.

Mr. and Mrs. James Jennings and son, Bill, of Ellwood, were guests of Mrs. Jennings's mother, Mrs. Lydia Galbreath yesterday.

Misses Dorothy Jean Anderson and Marjory Melke left yesterday for Cleveland where they will attend the Methodist Youth Fellowship convention, being held this week. They were sent as delegates from their organization of the church.

Jerry King entertained a number of his classmates and friends from Ellwood City and Wampum Tuesday night at his home.

Nelson Swagers has returned to Pittsburgh, after a week-end visit with his family here.

Around Hollywood

By JOHN TODD
International News Service Staff Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD, Dec. 31.—(INS)—Gorgeous Betty Grable is going to don the new look for the new year and all because of a catty woman.

Explaining why she is dropping the curtain on her world famous gams, Betty said:

"I was shopping and I happened to overhear a conversation between two women. One of them said to the other, 'look at Betty Grable over there with the short skirts. She doesn't care anything about style; she's so intent on showing those legs of hers. She's going to ram them down our throats whether we like it or not.'"

Trifle Miffed
Betty was a trifle miffed about it when I talked to her on the set of "This Is The Moment" at 20th Century-Fox.

She continued:

"You know as well as I do that I don't regard my legs as anything exceptional.

"I've worn the shorter skirts not to show my legs but because I like them. I think they are more comfortable. They give you more freedom of action.

"I certainly didn't wear them short to show my legs.

"But, after hearing that woman talk, I went right home and started letting down all the hems.

"I certainly don't want anyone to think that I am trying, as that woman put it, to shove my legs down their throats."

Cigarette Lighter
A Hollywood reporter's job is to write about glamour, but as a new year approaches, I wish to beg your indulgence. I want to write about cigarette lighters, particularly a cigarette lighter to end all cigarette lighters.

Came Christmas and I opened one package to find the biggest lighter I ever laid eyes on. My initials on the side were almost as big as an ordinary lighter.

I set it on a table to await further investigation. Came Sunday and a young man of mechanical bent walked in and spotted it.

His eyes lit up and he said:

"Brother, what a lighter! Does it work?"

Things Happen
I said I didn't know, so the young man went out and got some fluid and used half a can filling it. Being a cautious person, I advised him to wash his hands and rub off the lighter.

"Heck," he said, "it's only a lighter."

Pastor Resigns At New Wilmington

Rev. J. S. Dittmar Going To Pastorate At Clymer; Other Town News

NEW WILMINGTON, Dec. 31.—Rev. J. S. Dittmar, pastor of the Missionary Alliance church, has tendered his resignation, effective Sunday, to accept a call to Clymer, Pa.

Rev. Dittmar came here 5½ years ago and has taken an active part in religious and civic activities. He is a graduate of the missionary college at Nyack, N. Y. He is originally from Williamsport.

WEEK OF PRAYER
Week of Prayer services planned by the united churches of the community will start Sunday evening at the United Presbyterian church. They will be held nightly at 7:45 in the U. P. church.

Rev. A. E. Kelly, secretary of the Board of Administration of the U. P. church, will speak Sunday evening.

Other speakers are: Rev. Don P. Montgomery, Pleasant Grove U. P. church, Youngstown, Monday; Rev. T. D. Imbrie, First Presbyterian church, Emlenton, Tuesday; Rev. J. S. Dittmar, New Wilmington Missionary Alliance church, Wednesday; Rev. G. R. D. Braun, Epworth Methodist church, New Castle, Thursday and Rev. Harold Redman, First Presbyterian church, Mahoningtown, Friday.

KIWANIS MEETING
A discussion of the part their club should play in civic activities occupied the attention of the Kiwanis club at their meeting, Monday night at the Methodist church.

The meeting was the last one at which William Hartwell will preside as president. He will be succeeded by Griff Williams who will be inducted next Monday night.

Mr. Williams announced that the publicity committee for the new year will be composed of George Blasby, Pete McCrumb and James Aschomb. Other committee personnel will be announced Monday.

An invitation was received and accepted for the new officers to attend installation services at the Ellwood City club Tuesday night. Those who planned to attend were E. Gailey Sharp, vice president; Earl Black, treasurer, and William Reed, secretary. Congressman Louis Graham was the speaker.

ROTARY MEETING
Rev. George Myers, pastor of the Methodist church, was the speaker at Monday night's meeting of the Rotary club. He spoke of the complex living pattern which exist today and stressed the need of Christian principles in order that right decisions may be made.

HOLIDAY VISITORS
Mr. and Mrs. Joseph R. Creighton and son of Boston, left Tuesday for their home after spending a week with the former's parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Creighton.

Mr. Creighton will complete his studies at Harvard Law School in January and will then reside in San Francisco where he will join a widely known law firm.

For the Christmas week-end the Creightons went to Cleveland where they were the guests of a daughter, Mrs. Mildred Barry. While they were joined by another son, John W. Jr., and family from Lansing, Mich. Mr. Creighton teaches forestry at Michigan State University.

NEW WILMINGTON NOTES
Rev. and Mrs. Robert Kelly, South Market street, had for their guests the past several days Rev. and Mrs. A. E. Kelly of Pittsburgh, and their children, Ruth, a student at Muskingum College, and John, a student at Whittier College, Whittier, Calif.

Rev. and Mrs. Robert McDonald and children, will spend New Year's with Youngstown relatives.

PAYMENTS TO VETERANS
HARRISBURG, Dec. 31.—Ramsey S. Black, State Treasurer, announced that payments to returned Pennsylvania veterans under the Service Men's Readjustment Act during the week ended Dec. 12, 1947, totaled $1,139,186, paid in 56,106 checks.

Noted Dutch Artist Fatally Stricken

Van Meegeren Fooled Europe's Great Art Lovers With Fake Paintings

AMSTERDAM, Dec. 31.—(INS)—Hans Van Meegeren—who fooled Europe's great art experts with his copies of Old Masters—died last night in Amsterdam of a heart attack at the age of 58.

The Dutch artist revealed the paintings as fakes only to defend himself against charges of selling art treasures to Nazi leaders, including Hermann Goering.

He had received about $2,300,000 for the fake paintings since the early 1930's. He had signed them with such famous names as A. Vermeer and Pieter de Hooch.

Goering paid him $256,000 for an "original" Vermeer.

The Rotterdam Museum purchased some of his forged works after internationally recognized experts had testified to their authenticity.

Although Van Meegeren was acquitted on collaboration charges, he was sentenced on Nov. 13 to one year's imprisonment on charges of art fraud in a trial that received world-wide interest. He died in an Amsterdam clinic where he was taken for treatment for nervous strain shortly after the trial.

Fatalities More During Past Year

Coroner Nugent Renders Annual Report On Sudden Deaths During The Year

AUTO FATALITIES DOWN DURING YEAR

While the number of fatalities investigated during the past year was more than in 1946, automobile fatalities were only half the number in 1946. Coroner T. F. Nugent reported today. There were 173 fatalities so far during the year, with only a few hours to go. Last year, coroner cases numbered 157.

There were 12 auto fatalities in the county in 1947, of which six were in rural areas, five in the city and one in Ellwood City. This was just half the number of auto fatalities that occurred in 1946, when there were 24.

Five Are Drowned

Five died of drowning, one of homicide, seven from suicide, seven from burns, three from explosions, one from lightning, one from being kicked by a horse, four from industrial accidents, four from falls in homes, one from fall from roof, one from fall from a bridge and one was accidentally shot.

Heart cases continued to cause the greatest number of sudden deaths, 75 dying of this cause during the year. Strokes caused ten deaths, pneumonia 18, senility three and alcoholism two.

Dr. Nugent is winding up his term of office this week, after having served eight years in the coroner's office, illness during the past year having forced him to withdraw from the race. He will be succeeded next Monday by Charles E. Allen, who has been deputy to Dr. Nugent during his term of office.

Former Residents' Daughter Is Dead

Little Patricia Del Rosso, three-year-old daughter of Theodore and Joan Scarci Del Rosso, died Monday evening in a Cleveland hospital following an illness of pneumonia. The DelRossos were former residents of this city and now reside at 4528 Warren road, Cleveland, O.

In addition to her parents she leaves her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Palumbi and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Scarci, the latter of Cleveland, O. She leaves friends and relatives in this city.

Funeral services will be Friday at 2:30 p. m. in the Seicherise funeral home, 4289 East 128th and Miles street, Cleveland, O. Burial will be in a Cleveland cemetery.

J. P. EDGAR DIES TODAY IN BEAVER

Word has been received here of the death of a former resident, J. P. Edgar, who died this morning at Beaver, Pa., following an illness.

The deceased leaves nieces and nephews here. No arrangements of the funeral were made, but burial will probably be in Beaver, Pa.

DRIVER IS HELD

William Parrott of New Wilmington was arrested for alleged drunken driving by Policemen Tewell and Davis at 1:25 a. m. today at East street and Lincoln avenue.

A charge against him of driving while intoxicated will be sworn to by Chief of Police Robert D. Hanna today.

CHICAGO, Dec. 31.—The National Safety Council Tuesday estimated the 1947 traffic death total at 32,500, for the lowest mileage death rate in the nation's history. Deaths this year totaled about 1,200 fewer than in 1946, the council said, despite an increase of approximately 10 per cent in automobile mileage.

The estimate for the year was based on the 11-month total and the current accident trend.

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., Dec. 31.—The Johnstown Traction company Tuesday petitioned the Public Utility Commission for permission to raise fares from three rides for a quarter to straight 10 cents each, effective February 1. A similar raise was granted to the Pittsburgh Railways company during the day.

Rohrer May Take Action

Possibility Of Injunction Against County Board Is Seen After Move Today

Possibilities of an injunction against the Board of County Commissioners by a member of the board were seen at noon today following the passage of a compromise resolution. The compromise resolution authorizes settlement of a claim of the Matthew Leivo Sons company for $9,919 claimed due as extras upon the repairs of the West Washington street bridge.

"I am not satisfied the company is entitled to that sort of money," said Mr. Rohrer. "I will agree there is some justification for some payment, but as a contractor myself I believe $2,500 is sufficient. I sponsored a resolution authorizing a settlement at not more than $3,000. The other two members, Earl R. Wimer and Joseph F. Travers, then passed a resolution setting the figure at $5,000. I am seriously considering an injunction to stop the payment."

Matter Hangs Fire

The matter has hung on for over two years. It originated when a contract was let for the repairs of the West Washington street bridge. Matthew Leivo Sons were the low bidders and were awarded the contract.

Later U. A. Leivo notified the County Commissioners that some supporting steel was needed in the sub-structure and he was authorized to go ahead with it. This extra came to $9,919. Mr. Rohrer protected against payment of the bill and the matter went into court.

The action was dismissed for a legal defect and an ancient act of 1836 was invoked which provides for arbitrators to settle the dispute. The arbitrators met, but before the case was in County Solicitor William McElwee, Jr., withdrew from the case and it was left unsettled.

A first offer of compromise at $7,500 was made by the company. This was rejected. Today Atty. Alvah M. Shumaker appeared before the board and suggested that the matter be settled before the present Board of County Commissioners left office on January 5. He suggested a figure of $5,250. The commissioners cut this to $5,000 and passed a resolution authorizing this, with Wimer and Travers voting for it and Rohrer against.

Woman Suffers Critical Burns

Mrs. Lois Leslie, aged 43 years, of the Fountain Inn hotel is in the Jameson Memorial hospital suffering from critical burns about the upper part of the body, received when she is believed to have gone to sleep while smoking a cigarette.

An ambulance was summoned and she was removed to the hospital at 10:50 p. m. City firemen who were called to the scene extinguished the blaze in the room, a small amount of damage being done.

Discovery that there was a fire in Mrs. Leslie's room was made by Albert Haid, a resident at the hotel, who notified police, and they in turn called the fire department. Mrs. Leslie's home is said to be on Mt. Royal boulevard, Allison Park, Pa. She has been working at a local pharmacy, it is stated.

Lowellville Group At County Home

A highly interesting program was presented at the Lawrence County Home on Tuesday evening, when the chaplain, Rev. F. P. Sulmonetti was aided by a representative group of young people from the First Christian church of Lowellville, Ohio, led by their pastor, Rev. Fitch and Arthur Cunningham, prominent Christian business man.

The program opened at 7 o'clock, with the chaplain directing in the singing of Gospel songs, several sung by Rev. Sulmonetti in Italian at the request of the home residents. The scripture lesson was read by Ethna Sulmonetti who later sang, "The Love of God". Mr. Cunningham was introduced and presented his pastor, Rev. Fitch, who gave in inspiring Gospel address. The young people of his church presented both vocal and instrumental music.

Mrs. Sulmonetti aided by several of the women distributed half pound boxes of candy to the 150 residents of the County Home. The group visited every department of the home, singing to those unable to attend the chapel service. The work of the chaplain continues each week bring not only entertainment and gifts to the residents, but the much needed Gospel of Christ.

Surging Rally Hands Ford City First Loss

New Castle's "Race-Horse" Crew Turns On Heat In Last Period To Snatch Win; Jancone Leads Way With 15 Points; Halis High Man For Section 1 Quint.

The only thing comparable in closeness to the stunning 33 to 30 victory the scrappy New Castle High quintet hung on a previously unbeaten Ford City Section I team, last night would be Siamese twins. It was another of those thrilling photo-finish affairs, that had the bristles on the back of your neck standing straighter than an army private reviewed by a three-star general.

New Castle has one more pre-league game on the card, an engagement to fill at Sharpville Saturday night, then will wade into the tough section three fight with a more than creditable pre-league record which reads at the moment five wins and two defeats against some of the strongest competition in western Pennsylvania.

Jancone-Spears Star
In passing out the laurels for the great upset scored on the Glassers last night, we must of necessity lay the wreaths on the necks of two sparkling youngsters Jimmy Jancone and Don Spears, who really carried the "mail" last night with 25 of the 33 points between them.

It was young Jancone, New Castle's field goal kicker, who clinched the New Castle win, and stamps the Bill Douglass coached kids as dangerous "darkhorses" in Section Three.

Ford City had a center by the name of Ed Halis, (Number 12) and this boy was a whole ball club in himself, he only had 18 of the 30 points made by the Ford City team, and was the king pin around which the Ford City defense was built. Ford City had a good ball club, don't mistake that fact, swift, rangy and clever ball handlers, but what the local lacked in size they made up for in struggle, and struggle they did to the finish by three points.

Close Entire Way
The game was one of those affairs that was close all the way. Never did one team have more than five points lead, and that was held by the Forders at the end of the third period 25 to 20. The score was tied up nine times, to show you how close the thing really was.

Young Don Reed, sophomore center, starting his second varsity game, again looked impressive, supplying six points, and getting the only field goal for New Castle the first period, as the invaders led 8 to 7. New Castle's other five points were made by the cool Jancone dropping in five fouls out of six tries. Big Halis had all eight of the Ford City points.

Still Close At Half
At the end of the first half, New Castle still trailed by one point, 16 to 15. The score was tied at 11-11 and 13-13 in the stanza. New Castle was trying hard, but could not overtake the Ford City, although the locals did

Steelers Choose Evans Over Layne

Pittsburgh Trades Draft Rights For Texas Star To Get Kansas Ace

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 31.—(INS)—The Pittsburgh Steelers Tuesday announced they had traded their draft rights for Bobby Layne, University of Texas halfback, to the Chicago Bears for the draft rights to Ray Evans, University of Kansas halfback and passer.

Their announcement lifted the shroud of secrecy over the drafting of Layne.

The Steelers and Los Angeles Rams had refused to announce their draftees, and several other teams of the National Football league had announced only a partial draft list.

Should Layne go to the Bears, Coach George Halas will have four T-formation quarterbacks—Sid Luckman, Nick Saccinti, Notre Dame's great Johnny Lujack, and Layne.

The Steelers will get a 60-minute single-wing-back halfback—the type Coach Kuhn Sutherland likes—and one who can pass if they can sign Evans.

Lack of a good passer was one of the Steelers' worst weaknesses as they barely missed an eastern division title the past season.

Two More Clubs Bought By Bucs

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 31.—(INS)—The Pittsburgh Pirates today could count 19 teams in their farm system after the announcement that Davenport, Ia., of the Three-Eagle League, and Waco, Texas, of the Big State League, have been purchased.

Both are class B clubs. At the same time the Pirates announced they had severed relations with Selma, Ala., of the Southeastern League, also a class B club.

Oddly, the Chicago Cubs, who had been affiliated with Davenport, picked up the Selma club simultaneously with the announcement the Pirates had left that city, the Pittsburgh front office announced.

Titan Glory Road Blocked By Utah's Quintet

NEW WILMINGTON, Dec. 31.—Westminster's powerful basketball team will make a desperate bid to regain the prestige it lost in its eight-point loss to St. Francis on Friday night, January 2, in the Farrell high school gymnasium when it tackles Utah's national champions. The following night the Titans meet Miami university of Ohio in Cincinnati.

The task appears an almost impossible one for Grover Wash-

NEW YORK, Dec. 31.—(INS)—Utah University's 1947 National Invitation champions were still dazed today, some 12 hours after the season's biggest basketball upset which made the Utes a stunning 49-44 victim of lowly St. John's, of Brooklyn. It was the latter's first victory thus far over a major foe.

The Brooklynites simply broke in front at 8-0 and staved there, though once Utah drew up even at 17-11. The half ended, however, with St. John's leading at 30-23.

The second surprise of the evening was undefeated N.Y.U.'s easy 64-41 win over Temple, recent conqueror of Kentucky.

baugh's Titans since the "Utes" are reputedly the strongest team in the nation. Then the all-night trip to Cincinnati to meet Miami is certain to wear hardships on the Blue and White.

But two wins are almost a must for the New Wilmington collegians if they expect to make a national reputation.

The Titans fell down against St. Francis after scoring four fast wins against Slippery Rock, Millersville, Carnegie Tech and a good Geneva team.

But after gaining an early lead against the Red Raiders of Loretto, and apparently on their way to their fifth win, the Titans folded after losing Chester Dembinski, all-state center, due to an injury and Don McCullough on fouls in the third period. Then Tom Jones fouled out in the fourth quarter. Thereafter the Titans had nothing left to stop the pressing central Pennsylvanians.

tans. Only Walt Misika, now with the New York Knickerbockers, is missing from last year's championship quintet.

Only consolation for the Titans is that they will catch the Redskins on the road home after three tough games in the east against St. Johns, Canisius and LaSalle.

Utah's "one-two" punch of Arnold Ferrin and Vern Gardner, both of whom won All-American honors—Ferrin three times in as many years—are expected to be too much for the Towering Titans.

Peterson has an ample supply of reserves to fill Misika's shoes. Dick Smium, starter on the 1944 championship team and reserve last winter, and sophomore Don Jernerson are top candidates for that starting assignment.

Fred Wiedner and Leon Watson round out the starting five. Watson is the baby of the team, standing only five feet 11 inches, but he is one of the ablest point makers on the team. Against BYU last winter, Watson set an individual scoring mark of 29 points.

Same Lineup

Washabugh will start the same. Westminster team that has won four out of five starts. Don McCullough and Bill McLhinney at forwards, Chester Dembinski at center and Don Heddelston and Tom Jones at guards. Should McCullough be able to escape leaving the game via the foul route, the Titans will have an excellent chance of upsetting the high selling "Utes".

The Titans' task the following night is none the easier than handling the "Utes". Stopping Miami's all-Olio offense selection, Bob Brown, will be the single biggest job the Titans will face all season.

Brown finished among the nation's ten high scorers last winter with 437 points, and he is the kingpin of the entire Miami offense.

ELKS TO PLAY OIL CITY FIVE

Coach Paul Morrison will send his New Castle Elks into the heat of things again this coming Saturday night at the Washington High floor, opposing the fast and tall Oil City Merchants. The Elks Reserves will play a strong local team in the preliminary at 7:15 o'clock.

Oil City has in the lineup—Eckert 5 feet 10, "Wumpy" Ward, 6 feet 6 inches, Al Ward 6 feet 2, Bill McMurray 6 feet, Bob Lynch 6 feet 2, Mackie 6 feet, McGurn 5 feet 7, Dave Lynch 6 feet 3, and Deemer 6 feet 3, all with high school and college experience.

Union Loses To Sharpville

Union gave all they had last night against Sharpville but had to bow to height and experience. The final score favored the Mercer counties, 46-21, but the "Scotties" fought hard all the way.

Dunder and Maloney led the Blue Devil attack, while Pilshaw caused 10 for the Scotland lane five.

The Webster lads gamely tried to make a game of it for the first half, but fell farther behind as the game progressed.

The Mounties will engage Freedom Jan. 2 in their last warm-up tilt.

Leach Squelches Brothers Rumor

Did Not Fight Friday Hence Could Not Have Been K.O'd, Says Matchmaker

Rumor which spread throughout the city Tuesday, in effect that Elkins Brothers had been knocked out in Washington last Friday night is untrue, according to Matchmaker Tommy Leach of the Jefferson A. C.

"Some boys were joshing Andy Fair, former handler of Brothers, and out of this the rumor gained headway. Brothers did not fight Friday. However, he is training with Archie Moore, light-heavyweight," Leach stated.

Leach also stated that he has arranged three of the four preliminaries to the Jeff Clanton vs. Brothers fight in The Arena, January 7.

George Krestas, Mansfield vs. Julian Keene, Washington, 135. William Malone, Pittsburgh, vs. Babe Adams, East Liberty, 147.

Miles Jones, Washington, D. C., vs. Joe Brunweiser, Pittsburgh, 148.

Keene and Jones are training mates of Moore and Brothers.

INDIANS SIGN LEMON

CLEVELAND, Dec. 31.—(INS)—The Cleveland Indians announced today the signing of Bob Lemon, who was converted from a mediocre outfielder to a bang-up pitcher last season, to a 1948 contract calling for a 100 per cent increase in salary.

Lemon is the boy about whom Tribe President Bill Veck recently remarked: "He ought to win as many games as Bob Feller next season."

STATE-SMU ODDS EVEN

DALLAS, Tex., Dec. 31.—(INS)—The odds on the Southern Methodist Mustangs to defeat Penn State tomorrow in the Cotton Bowl football game went down to nearly even money today.

Only sentimentality appeared to rule the Mustangs the favorite with indications that it will be anyone's game.

EAST SIDE WINS GAME

The East Side defeated the News Raiders last night at the Armory floor, by a score of 33-27. J. Vargo starred for the victors, while Jack French and Danny Iozzi were best for the losers.

RIFLE CLUB LOSES

The New Castle Rifle club lost a close match at the Evans City range Monday night it was reported by Paul Carrigan—Evans City, 1197; New Castle 1175. High man for the match was Wilbur Thomas of the locals with a 244 out of a 250 possible.

Two And Half Billion Spent For Holidays

By INEZ ROBB

(U.S. Staff Correspondent)

NEW YORK, Dec. 31.—Money makes the mare go, and Santa's reindeer, too.

America's 1947 Christmas spree will cost the nation a record two billion, 500 million dollars when the bills are all in and the check-books down.

This is the staggering sum which the National Retail Dry Goods association estimates as "the minimum" spent in department stores and specialty shops during the annual November and December Christmas shopping binge.

Dollar Value Increase

In dollar value, this represents a six to ten per cent increase in Christmas sales over those in 1946. But the association, at its New York headquarters today, estimated that unit sales were not as high in 1947 as in 1946, due to the higher prices.

The association says it has no way of computing the percentage of the drop in unit sales.

Inflation, the high cost of living and the hike in prices all along the line are responsible both for the record volume in 1947 and for the fact that those dollars bought fewer things for Christmas in this year of grace.

Furthermore, the association spokesman said, all those 2½ billion dollars were not tossed down the drain this Christmas on gold crocheted car-muffs, mink coats for Fido, hand-painted neckties at $125 per or $50,000 "utility" diamond necklaces.

The usual amount of black chiffon lingerie exchanged hands this happy yuletide season, but Christmas, 1947, on the whole was distinguished by useful giving.

Electric clothes washers, dish washers, mangles, refrigerators, toasters and vacuum cleaners were in great demand throughout the Nation.

Over 1,300 Miles Of Road Improved In State In Year

HARRISBURG, Dec. 31.—Department of Highways maintenance forces have improved more than 1300 miles of road during the 1947 construction season.

A major portion of the work done by the department forces was centered on the "farm to market" roads on the state system.

There were approximately 855 miles of "farm to market" roads improved in 1947. Of that total 275.18 miles were surfaced with macadam and 579.81 miles were stabilized, which provided an all-weather surface for residents living along those sections.

In addition, the department forces reconstructed, resurfaced or widened nearly 460 miles of road this past season.

The department forces also completed work on 80 bridges since June 1. When the mileage of road improvements completed by department forces in 1947 is added to the 385 miles finished by contractors, the year's total will be approximately 1700 miles.

Pittsburgh Woman Is Assistant DA

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 31.—(INS)—Allegheny county's first woman assistant district attorney, Marjorie Hanson Matson, 33, will be sworn in next Monday, according to District Attorney-elect William S. Rahauer.

Mrs. Matson was also the first woman to serve as assistant county solicitor, a post she resigned to become assistant D.A.

Mrs. Matson was graduated from the University of Pittsburgh Law School ten years ago. She has a seven year old daughter.

Democratic Action Leaders Repudiate Move By Wallace

WASHINGTON, Dec. 31.—(INS)—Wilson W. Wyatt, Leon Henderson, Franklin D. Roosevelt, Jr., and Hubert H. Humphrey on Tuesday repudiated the third party candidacy of Henry A. Wallace.

Acting as officers of Americans for Democratic Action, a so-called non-Communist liberal organization representing progressives in both parties, they said in a joint statement:

"Mr. Wallace has issued his depressing invitation to disaster at a moment when progressives of every political faith are engaged in a desperate battle for the preservation of political and economic freedom for all peoples everywhere.

"We reject his invitation." ADA asserted that there is "overwhelming evidence that the communists are the machine behind the third party," and added that both "Progressive Republicans and New Deal Democrats reject this false flag." The statement said:

"The most fateful issues confronting the nation are the fulfillment of the Marshall plan for world recovery and the stabilization of our inflation-ridden economy at home.

"An unholy alliance of communists and reactionaries is challenging that program."

NEW MILK RECORD

HARRISBURG, Dec. 31.—While production of 388 million pounds of milk on Pennsylvania farms for November was 12 per cent under October, it set a new November record, according to Miles Horst, State Secretary of Agriculture. ### Senator Taft Sees Wallace's Act, G.O.P. Aid

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 31.—(INS)—Senator Robert A. Taft said Tuesday that he "doesn't see how Henry Wallace's third-party candidacy can help assisting the Republican cause".

This was the only comment Taft, a candidate for the Republican presidential nomination, would make upon the announcement of former Secretary of Commerce Wallace that he would try for the White House on a third-party ticket.

The 58-year-old Ohioan's news conference in St. Louis was devoted largely to ground he has covered in previous talks. He defended the Taft-Hartley labor law, saying "it seems to be working very well and we know of no case where it is causing great injustice". He acknowledged that there might be amendments to it later after its operation has been more fully tested.

Sees Income Tax Cut
Taft said he was "pretty confident" there would be some sort of income tax reduction during 1948 and said he expected rent control to continue in some form. He defended the principal of voluntary agreements in industry as opposed to government controls, saying they accomplished more in a shorter space of time.

He repeated his opposition to universal military training. He commented:

Not Expecting War
"I don't think it is an effective means of providing reserves, and I don't think it's an effective weapon in any war against Russia, which seems to be the only major war anybody is figuring on."

Taft's further comments, however, indicated that he was not expecting a war with Russia. Earlier, the senate leader said that the Republican party can "look forward to success" in the 1948 elections if the GOP congress makes a "reasonably good showing" in the coming session. He made this statement in an address before the John Marshall club of St. Louis.

State Police Say:—

Fatal traffic accidents in Troop D area for the first 11 months of 1947 show a decrease as compared with the same period of 1946. As of December 1, 1947, 76 persons were killed in traffic accidents in the rural areas of Armstrong, Beaver, Butler, Lawrence and Mercer counties, as compared with 87 killed during the same period last year. The number of persons injured in the same period remained virtually the same with 1014 injured in 1946 and 1011 in 1947.

Two Columbus, Ga., bowling teams, the Ledger-Enquirer and Walker Construction, think they must have set some sort of a record the other night when they rolled three consecutive tie games in league competition. But they're only boasting about the oddity of the situation, not the scores, which were 499, 466 and 498.

For the economists to chew on: (1) It virtually is axiomatic that increased production will bring lower prices. (2) Distillers now have a four years' supply of liquor on hand. (3) The cost of acquiring a hangover was never higher than it is today.—Cincinnati Enquirer.
